A. Wallis Budge, 2010-01-01 Legends of the Egyptian Gods written in 1912 is a book meant to help Egyptology students examine Egyptian literature and its history However since the backgrounds and names of Egyptian authors were not recorded Budge instead presents the texts in the most complete forms possible with the original hieroglyphs and their translations Legends of the Egyptian Gods includes a preface and an introduction by Budge as well as summaries of each myth at the beginning of the book The summaries presented in one large block are followed by the text and translations of nine Egyptian myths and legends The book contains illustrations and plates complementing the stories This book is a wonderful addition to the collection of any student of Egyptology SIR ERNEST ALFRED THOMPSON WALLIS BUDGE 1857 1934 was born in Bodmin Cornwall in the UK and discovered an interest in languages at a very early age Budge spent all his free time learning and discovering Semitic languages including Assyrian Syriac and Hebrew Eventually through a close contact he was able to acquire a job working with Egyptian and Iraqi artifacts at the British Museum Budge excavated and deciphered numerous cuneiform and hieroglyphic documents contributing vastly to the museum s collection Eventually he became the Keeper of his department specializing in Egyptology Budge wrote many books during his lifetime most specializing in Egyptian life religion and language Legends of the Gods ;The Egyptian Texts, Edited with Translations E. A. Wallis Budge,1912 The welcome which has been accorded to the volumes of this Series and the fact that some of them have passed into second and third editions suggest that these little books have been found useful by beginners in Egyptology and others Hitherto the object of them has been to supply information about the Religion Magic Language and History of the ancient Egyptians and to provide editions of the original texts from which such information was derived There are however many branches of Egyptology which need treatment in a similar manner in this Series and it has been suggested in many quarters that the time has now arrived when the publication of a series of groups of texts illustrating Egyptian Literature in general might well be begun Seeing that nothing is known about the authors of Egyptian works not even their names it is impossible to write a History of Egyptian Literature in the ordinary sense of the word The only thing to be done is to print the actual works in the best and most complete form possible with translations and then to put them in the hands of the reader and leave them to his judgment With this object in view it has been decided to publish in the Series several volumes which shall be devoted to the reproduction in hieroglyphic type of the best and most typical examples of the various kinds of Egyptian Literature with English translations on a much larger scale than was possible in my First Steps in Egyptian or in my Egyptian Reading Book These volumes are intended to serve a double purpose i e to supply the beginner in Egyptian with new material and a series of reading books and to provide the general reader with translations of Egyptian works in a handy form Legends Of The Gods E. A. Wallis Budge,2013-11-26 The object of this book is to supply information about the Religion Magic Language Legends and History of the ancient Egyptians It shows insight on legends like the death of Horus Ra and Isis the creational myths and much more Legends of the Gods; The Egyptian Texts, Edited With Translations E.
