Durban, a Cogent African City Anna Irene Del Monaco, Jian Liu, Yashaen Luckan, Belula Tecle Misghina, 2018-04-30 The city of Durban is one of the most intriguing for architects and urban designers due to its cultural and economic diversity on one the hand and its political evolution since its colonial formalisation apartheid influences and its post apartheid evolution on the other It is a city that expresses complex narratives in architectural form and expression seemingly chaotic yet within and upon a cogent overall structure Perhaps it is that very cogency in urban structure which facilitated its complex evolution or perhaps not This paradox forms the crux of the studies and applied research part of this book and which defined the sites of focus for a collaborative studio workshop Durban is a modern city which expresses the complex dynamics of an African city emerging from a historically colonial foundation This provided an interesting context for engagement of the UNESCO Chair for Sustainable Urban Quality and Culture notably in Africa The institutional agreement between the UNESCO Chair Sapienza University of Rome and the Durban University of Technology

DUT was formalised in the year 2013 prior to an international workshop in China and the UIA 2014 in Durban South Africa. The focus of the Chair and the curriculum outcomes of DUT with regard to urban culture and the evolution thereof created a mutually opportune association with the possibility for contribution to the UIA 2014 conference in Durban. After deliberations and the necessary paperwork the UNESCO Chair in Association with DUT were granted official space on the UIA Programme for presentation at the conference. This was received with much enthusiasm which drew further interest and participation from students and Professors of Sapienza University of Rome and Tsinghua University of Beijing in China. Further representation of academics from Manipal University in India, School of Architecture University of Florida and Hosei University in Japan added much value to the collaboration in Durban.

Re-Authoring Life Narratives After Trauma: A Holistic Narrative Model of Care Charles B. Manda, 2019-12-12. Re-authoring Life Narratives after Trauma is an interdisciplinary specialist resource for traumatic stress researchers, practitioners and frontline workers who focus their research and work on communities from diverse religious backgrounds that are confronted with trauma, death, illness and other existential crises. This book aims to argue that the biopsychosocial approach is limited in scope when it comes to reaching a holistic model of assessing and treating individuals and communities that are exposed to trauma. The holistic model must integrate an understanding of and respect for the many forms of religion and spirituality that clients might have. Pargament 2011. It will not only bring a spiritual perspective into the psychotherapeutic dialogue but it will also assist in dealing with the different demands in pastoral ministry as related to clinical and post-traumatic settings. The book makes several contributions to scholarship in the disciplines of, although not limited to, traumatic stress studies, pastoral care and counselling, psychology and psychiatry. Firstly, the book brings spirituality into the psychotherapeutic dialogue; traditionally, religious and spiritual topics have not been a welcome part of the psychotherapeutic dialogue. Secondly, it underscores the significance of documenting literary narratives as a means of healing trauma; writing about our traumas enables us to express things that cannot be conveyed in words and to bring to light what has been suppressed and imagine new possibilities of living meaningfully in a changed world. Thirdly, it proposes an extension to the five-stage model of trauma and recovery coined by Judith Herman.

The African National Congress and Participatory Democracy Heidi Brooks, 2019-08-15. This book examines the development of democratic thought in the African National Congress (ANC) of South Africa with a focus on the movement's ideas about participatory democracy. It makes particular reference to two key periods: the 1980s people's power movement and the subsequent years of policy formulation from 1990 when the ANC began to design and implement a system of participatory democracy alongside a representative government. Through the examination of historic documents and in-depth interviews with former ANC activists, government officials and those involved in policy development, the author explores the inspiration for the party's commitment to establishing participatory democracy. The book combines democratic theory and political and intellectual history to look at the role of popular participation as part of a broader trajectory of the ANC's democratic thought. It critically engages with concepts used in the party's participatory discourse with a view to deepening our understanding of how ideas have shaped the construction of South Africa's democracy.

Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world? In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts, societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector. With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health, water, and energy provision, and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors, Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past
