The Algorithmic Society Marc Schuilenburg, Rik Peeters, 2020-12-29 We live in an algorithmic society Algorithms have become the main mediator through which power is enacted in our society This book brings together three academic fields Public Administration Criminal Justice and Urban Governance into a single conceptual framework and offers a broad cultural political analysis addressing critical and ethical issues of algorithms Governments are increasingly turning towards algorithms to predict criminality deliver public services allocate resources and calculate recidivism rates Mind boggling amounts of data regarding our daily actions are analysed to make decisions that manage control and nudge our behaviour in everyday life The contributions in this book offer a broad analysis of the mechanisms and social implications of algorithmic governance Reporting from the cutting edge of scientific research the result is illuminating and useful for understanding the relations between algorithms and power Topics covered include Algorithmic governmentality Transparency and accountability Fairness in criminal justice and predictive policing Principles of good digital administration Artificial Intelligence AI in the smart city This book is essential reading for students and scholars of Sociology Criminology Public Administration Political Sciences and Cultural Theory interested in the integration of algorithms into the governance of society

The Organisation of Crime and Harm in the Construction Industry Jon Davies, Hanna Malik, 2024-04-30 Drawing on empirical work and secondary analysis from the UK and Finnish construction industries this book contributes a deep rooted analysis of construction industry harms that originate from corporate industrial state processes The UK context arguably represents a classic neoliberal system categorised by privatisation of services and minimal regulation whereas Finland broadly provides a social democratic alternative with its relatively strong national regulation and public sector oversight of industry These concepts interlink strongly with the notion of state corporate crime since this perspective shifts attention away from individualistic explanations for crime and harm towards symbiosis between states and corporations This book argues that existing explanations based on organised crime and individual rogues are insufficient to account for the wider range and subtlety of harms that occur in construction and therefore offers a unique perspective into organisational industry and state dynamics in this sector An accessible and compelling read this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology sociology organized crime and those interested in harms in the construction industry

Digital Indonesia Edwin Jurriens, 2018-02-14 This book places Indonesia at the forefront of the global debate about the impact of disruptive digital technologies Digital technology is fast becoming the core of life work culture and identity Yet while the number of Indonesians using the Internet has followed the upward global trend some groups e the poor the elderly women the less well
