Chihera in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando,Sophia Chirongoma,Munyaradzi Nyakudya,2023-02-27 Zimbabwean social media has been awash with images of a woman character spirit or concept called Chihera Traditionally a woman descending from the Mhofu Eland lineage totem is known as Chihera In the cumulative tradition of the Shona a Zimbabwean ethnic group Chihera is a fiercely independent assertive free spirited and no nonsense woman This volume seeks to deepen reflections on the Chihera phenomenon in the context of the search for gender justice in Zimbabwe and Africa The authors reflect on how this radical indigenous feminist ethic circulating on social media can animate the quest for Zimbabwean and African women's full liberation from patriarchy and all oppressive forces. They grapple with the issue of generating culturally sensitive theories and approaches to galvanize the struggle for African women's liberation in post-colonial settings. Second, they locate the Chihera mystique in the context of the practical struggle for women's empowerment. Third, the volume illustrates how the Chihera phenomenon could be utilized for gender justice in Zimbabwe and beyond.

Social Media and Digital Dissidence in Zimbabwe Trust Matsilele, 2022-08-29. This book proposes a new theorisation when studying cyber dissidents in an African digital sphere. It argues that social media dissidents are a recent development in a long lineage of dissidents in African societies. Using Zimbabwe as a case study, the study locates contemporary dissidents in the same family with other historical dissident figures found in African orature: the Chimurenga wars through music, poetry and other forms of expression. The book argues against techno-deterministic approaches to studying social media-born digital dissidence in Africa. It is aimed at scholars dedicated to studying social media movements in African contexts and the global south, generally prompting them to re-evaluate their earlier conclusions and adopt a more nuanced and context-specific approach.

Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure, 2020-11-29. Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing, Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe. It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author's excavations with native concepts and philosophies. Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape. In so doing, the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology. Written in an accessible manner, the book is aimed at undergraduate students, graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe. The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies, African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology.

Cultures of Change in Contemporary Zimbabwe Oliver Nyambi, Tendai Mangena, Gibson Ncube, 2021-11-04. This book investigates how culture reflects change in Zimbabwe, focusing predominantly on Mnangagwa's 2017 coup but also uncovering deeper roots for how renewal and transition are conceived in the country. Since Emmerson Mnangagwa ousted Robert Mugabe in 2017, he has been keen to define his Second Republic or New Dispensation with a rhetoric of change and a rejection of past political and economic cultures. This multi- and interdisciplinary volume looks to the social media language, discourse, theatre, images, political speeches and literary fiction and non-fiction to see how they have reflected on this time of unprecedented upheaval. The book argues that themes of self-renewal stretch right back to the formative years of the ZANU-PF and that despite the longevity of Mugabe's tenure, the latest transition can be seen as part of a complex and protracted layering of post-colonial social, economic and political changes. Providing an innovative investigation of how political change in Zimbabwe is reflected on in cultural texts and products this book will be of interest to researchers across African history literature politics culture and post colonial studies

Comedy and Satire in Zimbabwe Rodwell Makombe, 2025-05-21 The book is about comedy the nation and resistance in Zimbabwe following the fall of Robert Mugabe in 2017 It explores how satiric comedies and comic texts in post Mugabe Zimbabwe contest hegemonic narratives of the nation and authorise alternative narratives from the margins Drawing on postcolonial theories of the nation it analyses subversive comedies and social media texts that contest official political narratives in Zimbabwe including the comedies of four Zimbabwean comedians Kapfupi and Marabha Doc Vikela and Sabhuku Vharazipi as well as social media texts on President Mnangagwa's Facebook Page and cartoons published by the Zimbabwean newspaper ZimDaily Primarily found via social media platforms Facebook and Youtube these texts centre alternative views and narratives of ordinary citizens contesting established truths and providing a counter narration to official hegemonic discourses of the nation Where existing scholarship on post Mugabe politics in Zimbabwe focuses on issues such as the coup militarisation and discourses of newness little attention has been paid to the forms of resistance used in everyday discourse by Zimbabweans and particularly via satire and comedy These comic texts shared by comedians and normal citizens on social media can provide a useful alternative perspective to make sense of the politics and political performances that characterize the new political dispensation after Mugabe
