Exploring Economic Reintegration in Namibia. Individual Trajectories of PLAN Ex-Fighters and SWAPO Exiles, 1989-2018 Tichaona Mazarire, 2023-01-18 Exploring Economic Reintegration in Namibia Individual Trajectories of PLAN Ex Fighters and SWAPO Exiles 1989 2018 draws from life histories to present constraints and possibilities that have shaped former SWAPO exiles economic reintegration in post colonial Namibia from 1989 through 2018 The book advances three arguments each of which pushes beyond existing scholarship on Namibia and or economic reintegration broadly Collectively these arguments challenge dominant narratives that have generalized former SWAPO exiles economic reintegration experiences highlighting that there is no single narrative that can describe their unique life stories of reintegration in the post colony

Diamond Warriors in Colonial Namibia Job Shipululo Amupanda, 2022-07-06 Diamond Warriors in Colonial Namibia enters into uncharted scholarly territory of illegal diamond smuggling at the largest diamond mining company in colonial Namibia De Beers Consolidated Diamond Mines of South West Africa CDM It details the underground activities of the natives migrant workers employed by the CDM and how these illicit activities accounted for rapid development in Owamboland Beyond this account the book takes on the deterministic natural resource curse theory that equates natural resource endowments to a curse resulting in underdevelopment and sometimes conflict It is argued and proven herein from a decolonial standpoint that such an approach is an oversimplification of the political economy of natural resources in Africa in general and Namibia in particular The text also provides a contextual account of the contract labour system and details the symbiotic relationship between CDM and the colonial state before highlighting the remaining unanswered questions and areas of further research

Institutions and Democracy in Africa Nic Cheeseman, 2018-02-22 Historically African political institutions such as constitutions legislatures and judiciaries have been seen as weak and vulnerable to manipulation leading some to claim that the continent is institutionless However recent developments including the consolidation of presidential term limits in a number of countries demonstrate that this depiction is no longer tenable By drawing attention to how institutions can shape the practice of politics this book demonstrates that electoral commissions economic regulations and systems of land tenure are vital to our understanding of contemporary Africa A series of cutting edge contributions from leading scholars explain how the rules of the game shape political developments across the continent from Kenya to Nigeria and from Benin to South Africa In chapters that cover bureaucracies constitutions elections political parties the police and more the authors argue that a new research agenda is required if we are to better understand the process of democratisation

Awards, Honors and Prizes Jack Batten,1997 Re-invigorating ubuntu through water: A human right to water under the Namibian Constitution Ndjodi Ndeunyema,2021-10-01 This book argues for the existence of a court enforceable human right to water that is implied from the right to life in Article 6 of the Namibian Constitution The book builds this argument by using tools of constitutional interpretation and with the aid of comparative materials As such the African value of ubuntu is invoked Ubuntu which is legally developed through its four key principles of community interdependence dignity and solidarity is anchored in a novel approach to Namibian constitutional interpretation that is conceptualised as re invigorative constitutionalism The book advances the AQUA adequacy quality accessibility content of water and articulates the correlative duties within the context of the respect protect fulfil trilogy which are duties imposed upon the Namibian state as the primary duty bearer for a right to water These duties include irreducible essential content duties that are argued to be immediate when compared to general obligations In giving substance to duties that flow from a right to water international law interpretative resources are also relied upon including General Comment No 15 by the United Nations Committee on Social Economic and Cultural Rights the African Commission s Principles and Guidelines on Social and Economic Rights and the World Health Organisation s Drinking water Quality Guidelines Moreover the book addresses various justiciability concerns that may arise arguing that Namibian courts are institutionally competent and legitimate in enforcing right to water claims through the application of the bounded deliberation model Additionally because the Principles of State Policy in Article 95 of the Namibian Constitution are rendered court unenforceable by Article 101 the argument is made that this does not undermine the claim that a right to water anchored in the right to life can be enforced through the courts Dr Ndjodi Ndeunyema Modern Law Review Early Career Research Fellow University of Oxford
