40 Writing Prompts with Graphic Organizers Stefan Czarnecki,2009-10 This collection of descriptive narrative expository and persuasive prompts sparks students imaginations scaffolds the writing process and gets them prepared for the writing tests Teachers choose from highly motivating topics such as an outrageous monster for sale ad that leads to narrative writing and a kid invented holiday that students must persuade their principals to observe Reproducible activity pages for each prompt include brainstorming guidance a list of words to enhance writing tips on organizing the writing a graphic organizer designed just for that prompt and a model lead A great way to target the standards based forms of writing For use with Grades 4-6 Narrative Writing, Grades 6-8 \(Meeting Writing Standards Series\) Andrea Trischitta,2000-06 Activities include lessons on the elements of narrative writing figurative language grammar proofreading editing skills and includes ways to encourage the readers to feel that they are involved in the stories Improving Narrative Writing Using a Graphic Organizer Marissa Ramirez,2014 30 Graphic Organizers for Writing \(Graphic Organizers to Improve Literacy Skills\) , The Effects of Graphic Organizers on Third Grade Students' Narrative Writing Sharine Nguyen,2009 Research question In what ways do graphic organizers along with teacher guided questions affect third grade English Language Learner s performance on Narrative Writing prompts Subquestions How will this improve ELL s organization and focus on narrative prompts How will this affect student s use of sensory details How will this affect student s confidence about themselves as writers How will this affect student s attitudes toward writing Research Activities Context This inquiry took place in a third grade classroom at Lincoln Elementary School The school implemented Response to Intervention RTI which required students to be grouped based on their reading abilities and sent to their leveled classroom to be taught reading and language arts Three out of the four target students were English Language Learner s ELL s as indicated on the California English Language Development Test CELDT The remaining student was classified as Initial Fluent English Proficient IFEP The target students were chosen based on their low performance on a district

mandated narrative writing assessment Methods and data The Narrative writing intervention occurred over a period of eight weeks including a two week winter break The main goals were to increase student s organization use of adjectives and use of story connectors Other components studied included effects on confidence and interest in writing Students practiced using the Quick Sketch graphic organizer as a pre writing tool to organize their narrative writing with a beginning middle and end They also practiced using the Adjective Organizer as a revising tool to include more adjectives in their writing Students used the writing process pre writing drafting revising editing and publishing for each writing task Data sets include six narrative writing pieces including a pre assessment and two post assessments Results Comparisons of baseline and outcome data indicate one student made significant gains in both her organization and use of adjectives one student made moderate gains and two students showed slight improvements throughout the intervention but did not show improvement on their post assessments Conclusions Comparisons of baseline and outcome data indicate using graphic organizers that included guided questions along with illustrations helped students to organize their ideas and write a more organized paper It also helped improve the use of story connectors and adjectives Generally students interest in writing went down slightly but they showed increased confidence in their writing ability Grade level Third Grade Data collection methods Writing Assessments Interviews Survey Attitude and Observation Field Notes Curriculum areas ESL ELL Writing Instructional approaches Writing Narrative Writing Explicit instruction Student Engagement Graphic organizers concept maps Note taking

"Can We Use a Story Map?" Le Tran,2009 Research Question How will using a story map graphic organizer help improve students structure and organization in their narrative writing Sub Questions Will using a story map help ELL students to be able to plan their writing and organize their writing during the pre write phase Will using a story map help students to allow their readers to imagine the world of the event or experience in their narrative writing Research Activities Context This study took place in a fourth grade self contained classroom that was located in a small district under Program Improvement The class was composed of a diverse student population with a wide range of academic needs In this intervention there were four students who were chosen as target students based on their low writing ability All four students were English Language Learners Methods and Data This intervention spanned 5 weeks It was implemented in order to guide students in improving the organization and structure of their narrative writing Student achievement was defined based on their increasing scores and the layout of their papers whether or not the paragraphs were identifiable The data included a collection of their graphic organizers narrative writing attitudinal surveys observational notes and homework Results Comparisons of baseline and outcome data indicate that target students showed slight growth on their writing scores based on a rubric in the organization of the writing and in their attitude towards writing Conclusions Story map graphic organizers provided students with a visual display of how to write a narrative It also provided students with guidance to start and continue through the different sections of a narrative This intervention demonstrated that with modeling practice and many examples students will be able to improve in the organization and structure of their writing and feel more confident as they write Grade Level Fourth Grade Data Collection Methods Curriculum assessments Survey Attitude Writing Assessments and Observation Student Curriculum Areas ESL ELL Writing Instructional Approaches Writing Explicit Instruction Writing Narrative Homework and Graphic organizers Write on Target Yolande F.
