Official Report Uganda. National Assembly, 1968 Historical Dictionary of Uganda Louise Pirouet, 1995-03 Uganda has now joined the list of countries covered by Scarecrow Press series of Historical Dictionaries of Africa An introductory essay provides an overview of the geography demography and economy of one of Africa's most scenically beautiful and diverse countries The historical section of the introduction outlines Uganda's chequered development as a British protectorate and then deals with its initial post independence before outlining its tragic descent into chaos and carnage under Presidents Idi Amin and the reinstated Milton Obote Finally Pirouet notes the change of political direction under Yoweri Museveni A chronology follows which locates events that are dealt with more fully in the dictionary proper The entries in the main section of the dictionary cover places historical events and movements important persons and ethnic groups languages and political and other movements up to early 1994 This is followed by a lengthy select bibliography arranged under twelve main heads The introduction to the bibliography provides a brief guide to the main collections of archival material relating to Uganda One of the fascinations of Ugandan history is the exceptionally rich documentation relating to the early colonial period and the unusual amount of high quality Ugandan language published and archival source material which characterizes this highly literate society Celebrating Literacy in the Rwenzori Region Amos Mubunga Kambere, 2011-04-21 When the struggle ended in the Rwenzori region of Uganda in 1982 after twenty years of fighting four short years of unprecedented development followed It affected many areas of the people's lives but it especially impacted education In this combination history and memoir author Amos Mubunga Kambere recaps the development of education in the region but also discusses how he came to be Ugandas youngest member of Parliament In Celebrating Literacy in the Rwenzori Region Kambere takes a step by step walk through his life while relating the forces that instituted change in the educational system The region saw eight new government grant aided secondary schools two partially grant aided secondary schools one private secondary school two primary teacher training colleges and a technical school At age twenty six as the youngest member of Parliament ever elected in Uganda Kambere didnt have much on his political manifesto except the recognition that his people were educationally backward His task was to convince the population that education was the best weapon to fight backwardness poverty repression and enslavement Celebrating Literacy in the Rwenzori Region tells his story for the next generation to convey to them the lessons to be learned and the importance of education
