Windows SharePoint Services 2003 provides a place where team members can communicate, share documents, and work together on a project. To access a SharePoint team site, enter the site's URL in your Web browser's address bar, as shown above. When the Connect to <site> dialog box appears, enter your user name and password and click OK.

Link Bar

Contains links for common tasks, such as creating documents, lists, and libraries, changing site settings, and getting help. The Link Bar also contains a link to the site's Home page.

Quick Launch bar

Contains links to common content areas of the site, such as document and picture libraries, lists, and discussion boards. By default, the Quick Launch bar contains the following links:

- Documents: Displays a page that lists the shared documents on the site. You can use the links on this page to upload files to the Web site.
- Pictures: Displays a page that lists the shared images on the site. You can use the links on this page to upload images in various formats, such as .jpg, .gif, and .bmp.
- Lists: Displays lists where you can store different types of information, such as contacts and tasks.
- Discussions: Displays the list of message boards on the Web site. The team members in an organization can use message boards to discuss different topics.
- Surveys: Displays Internet Live Forms, which are used to respond to questionnaires posted by team members.

Home page

Contains the following four default Web Parts on a single page: Announcements, Events, the site image, and Links. A Web Part is a modular unit of information that consists of a title bar, a Name, and content. You can use Web Parts to add images, documents, and lists to the site. You can add additional Web Parts, such as Contacts and Tasks, to a page as needed.

Search bar

Allows users to search the site for information by entering keywords.

Modify Shared Page

Contains commands you can use to customize a page view. To customize the Shared View of a page, you must belong to either the Administrator or Web Designer group.
