LESSON 738

JAMES

THE PIRATES OF TRIBULATION JAMES 1

Trials and temptations are common to all human beings. This is why the first chapter of the letter of James is so practical to us all—it addresses real-life issues. And that is true for the rest of the book. James presents wisdom for life.

Today we set sail on our Wisdom Journey into the book of James. And I must warn you, this little book, which you can read in about thirty minutes or less, is going to challenge every corner of your heart and every area of your life. It is not going to leave us any room to hide.

Now as we begin in verse 1, the author introduces himself as, “James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.”

Most evangelical scholars put the clues together and conclude that this is James, the half brother of Jesus, born to Mary and Joseph sometime after the virgin birth of Jesus. Matthew 13:55 actually gives us the names of these half brothers: James, Joseph, Simon, and Jude. Jude will later write that little book of Jude, next to Revelation.

This particular James went on to become the pastor/teacher of the church in Jerusalem and a very influential leader in the early church.

I say all of that to point out this: James does not start off his letter by writing, “James, the half brother of Jesus” or “James, the influential pastor of the Jerusalem church” or, “James, the man who grew up in the same house as Jesus did.” None of that. He says simply, “James, a slave (literally) of God and of the Lord Jesus.” He thinks of himself as just a servant of his Lord.

James informs us he is writing “to the twelve tribes in the Dispersion” (verse 1). These are Jewish believers scattered—dispersed—throughout the Roman Empire. They have been exiled because of their faith in Christ. They are now scattered abroad.

James does not waste any time with introductions. He jumps right in with verse 2: “Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds.”

Immediately, James gives us four truths about trials and tribulations. First, trials are unavoidable. James does not write, “Consider it all joy, if you encounter trials” but “when you encounter them”!

Trials and tribulations are going to come, beloved. You do not have to go looking for
