

The background image is a detailed, painterly illustration of a large-scale construction project, likely the rebuilding of Jerusalem's walls. In the foreground, numerous workers in period clothing are engaged in various tasks: some are moving large stone blocks, others are using tools like hammers and chisels, and one is operating a wheelbarrow. A vintage truck is loaded with stone blocks on the right. The middle ground features a long, high wall under construction, with workers standing along its length. In the background, a city with a prominent blue-domed dome and other buildings is visible on a hillside. Two large cranes are positioned on either side of the city, suggesting the use of modern machinery in this historical setting. The overall scene conveys a sense of industriousness and the scale of the rebuilding effort.
