Joo, Sung Hee

Limpopo 2014 Trial Limpopo Memorandums:

An Emerging Approach for Education and Care Susana Castro, Olympia Palikara, 2017-08-07 An Emerging Approach for Education and Care provides a synthesis of the extensive research that has been conducted worldwide about the International Classification of Functioning Disability and Health for Children and Youth in education and care The main purpose of the ICF is to provide a classification of functioning for adults and children with difficulties considering their everyday lives all the activities they perform and the environments they are embedded in in addition to their health condition which has been the traditional focus of Special Education provision in many countries Each chapter presents an evidence based study describing how the ICF has been used to improve the provision of services for children and young people with Special Educational Needs around the world Moreover each chapter is written by an expert on the ICF from a different country thus providing an overview of how the ICF can be applied in international educational contexts with different educational and health systems and cultural backgrounds This synthesis of world leading research focuses on the ICF as a framework to approach assessment intervention and classification for children and young people with SEN whilst also providing practical examples of how it can be implemented An Emerging Approach for Education and Care will be essential reading for academics researchers and practitioners working on Special Educational Needs provision and rehabilitation It should also be of great interest to those involved in the study of early childhood education and for postgraduate students aspiring to work in these settings

The Routledge Handbook of the New African Diasporic Literature Lokangaka Losambe, Tanure Ojaide, 2024-05-16 The Routledge Handbook of the New African Diasporic Literature introduces world literature readers to the transnational multivocal writings of immigrant African authors Covering works produced in Europe North America and elsewhere in the world this book investigates three major aesthetic paradigms in African diasporic literature the Sankofan wave late 1960s early 1990s the Janusian wave 1990s 2020s and the Offshoots of the New Arrivants those born and growing up outside Africa Written by well established and emerging scholars of African and diasporic literatures from across the world the chapters in the book cover the works of well known and not so well known Anglophone Francophone and Lusophone writers from different theoretical positionalities and critical approaches pointing out the unique innovative artistic qualities of this major subgenre of African literature The focus on the diasporic consciousness of the writers and their works sets this handbook apart from others that solely emphasize migration which is more of a process than the community of settled African people involved in the dynamic acts of living reflected in diasporic writings This book will appeal to researchers and students from across the fields of Literature Diaspora Studies African Studies Migration Studies and Postcolonial Studies
