Dominance and Decline Susan Booysen, 2015-10-01 As Jacob Zuma moves into the twilight years of his presidencies of both the African National Congress ANC and of South Africa this book takes stock of the Zuma led administration and its impact on the ANC Dominance and Decline The ANC in the Time of Zuma combines hard hitting arguments with astute analysis Susan Booysen shows how the ANC has become centred on the personage of Zuma and that its defence of his extremely flawed leadership undermines the party's capacity to govern competently and to protect its long term future Following on from her first book The African National Congress and the Regeneration of Power 2011 Booysen delves deeper into the four faces of power that characterise the ANC Her principal argument is that the state is failing as the president's interests increasingly supersede those of party and state Organisationally the ANC has become a hegemon riven by factions as the internal blocs battle for core positions of power and control Meanwhile the Zuma controlled ANC has witnessed the implosion of the tripartite alliance and decimation of its youth women's and veterans leagues Electorally the leading party has been ceding ground to increasingly assertive opposition parties And on the policy front it is faltering through poor implementation and a regurgitation of old ideas As Zuma's replacements start competing and succession politics take shape Booysen considers whether the ANC will recover from the damage wrought under Zuma's reign and attain its former glory Ultimately she believes that while the damage is irrevocable the electorate may still reward the ANC for transcending the Zuma years This is a must have reference book on the development of the modern ANC With rigour and incisiveness Booysen offers scholars and researchers a coherent framework for considering future patterns in the ANC and its hold on political power Systems Analysis Approach for Complex Global Challenges Priscilla Mensah, David Katerere, Sepo vulnerabilities by age gender and level of education Land, the State and the Unfinished Decolonisation Project in Africa Chitonge, Horman, Mine, Yoichi, 2019-06-25 This book focuses on the work of one of the leading African scholars on the land question and agrarian transformation in Africa Sam Moyo It offers a critical discussion in conversation with Sam Moyo of the land question and the response of African states Since independence African states have been trying to address the colonial legacy on land policy and governance After six decades of formulating and implementing land reforms most countries have not succeeded in decolonising approaches to land policy and the administrative framework The book brings together the broader debates on the implications of decolonisation of Africa s land policy Through case studies from several African countries the book offers an empirical analysis on land reforms and the emerging land relations and how these affect land allocation and use including agricultural production Most of the chapters discuss how the unresolved land question in post colonial Africa impacts on agricultural production and rural development broadly The failure to decolonise colonial land policy and the imported tenure systems has left post colonial African states dancing to two tunes resulting in schizophrenic land and agrarian policies The book demonstrates that the failure by African states to reconcile imported and indigenous land tenure systems and practices is evident in the deliberate denigration of customary tenure It is also evident in the rising land inequality and the neglect of the agricultural sector the small scale and subsistence sub sectors in particular The

The African Food Environments Amos Laar,Kaleab Baye,Anna Lartey,Francis Zotor,Gershim Asiki,2023-09-05 In many respects the continent of Africa is in transition Prominent among them currently is the nutrition transition One consequence of the nutrition transition is the increase in prevalence of nutrition related non communicable diseases NCDs such as obesity type 2 diabetes cardiovascular diseases and certain cancers Although NCDs are a global public health problem the rate of increase in NCDs morbidity and mortality in some African countries is staggering This surge has been linked to modifiable environmental factors factors that facilitate the consumption of obesogenic energy dense nutrient poor foods rather than unrefined cereals fruits and vegetables It has long been recognized that the physical and social environments in which people live work and eat are critical determinants of their health More recently there has been a greater focus on the food environment as a key determinant of health Available evidence shows that unhealthy food environments drive unhealthy diets and unhealthy diet is one of four main risk factors for NCDs Report of the Annual Meeting of the South African Association for the Advancement of Science ,2006 Women's coping in various spheres in society: Challenges and opportunities Orna Braun-Lewensohn,Claude-Hélène Mayer,Shir Daphna-Tekoah,2023-01-04

Measuring Transboundary Water Cooperation Saruchera, D.,Lautze, Jonathan,2015-12-31 Water cooperation has received prominent focus in the post 2015 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs While proposals for measuring water cooperation appear to be converging toward a small set of indicators the degree to which these proposed indicators draw on past work is unclear This paper mines relevant past work to generate guidance for monitoring the proposed SDG target related to transboundary water cooperation Potential measures of water cooperation were identified filtered and applied in three countries Botswana South Africa and Zimbabwe Six indicators were ultimately determined as being suitable for measuring water cooperation As the SDG process turns its focus to the selection of indicators the indicators proposed in this paper may merit consideration

Enhancing Food Production System Resilience for Food Security Facing a Changing Environment Liming Ye,Ping Zhu,2023-11-28 As the dominant source of the human food supply the global land system underlies the foundation of the livelihood and wellbeing of humanity on Earth On the one hand the growth rate in the land system s productive capacity of food has played a key role in global food provision Technological breakthroughs in wheat and rice production during the past few decades for instance have greatly contributed to the maintenance of this growth rate in many parts of the world On the other hand however the terrestrial food production system is facing increasing challenges from environmental stressors ranging from climate change air pollution to land degradation Whether and how the global land system will support the food security of more than 10 billion people in the 21st century while minimizing its environmental footprint remains an open question to debate It is inevitable that the global food production system has to be shifted from focusing on production expansion to land system resilience so that the dual goals of sustainable production and environmental friendliness can be simultaneously achieved Southern Africa Report ,2005
