Naval Amphibious Capability In The 21st Century:

Naval Amphibious Capability in the 21st Century United States United States Marine Corps, 2014-11-14 Now more than ever the rapid responsiveness readiness flexibility precision and strategic mobility of maritime forces are essential to ensuring continued access and security in the global commons and the littoral regions that border them As the Nation prepares for an uncertain future its maritime and amphibious capabilities are essential to deterrence building alliances denying sanctuary projecting influence and when required projecting power against increasingly lethal and asymmetric adversaries Rapidly evolving security and fiscal environments however demand corresponding changes in our forward deployed crisis response force to include operational thinking concepts education training capabilities and partnerships Increasingly more capable and irregular threats to our national interests require an integrated multi domain approach informed by continuous innovation in naval warfighting littoral maneuver and amphibious operations Amphibious capability has an aggregate utility across the range of military operations that is reflected in combatant commander demand Approaches such as single naval battle an integrated naval expeditionary system broadened combined arms and special operations integration are an effective counter to increasingly capable anti access and area denial A2AD threats that seek to limit our freedom of action Above all we guard against surprise and preserve our nation s readiness through vigorous professional education training wargaming experimentation and exercises that integrate the naval special operations forces SOF joint interagency and multinational force Future fights are most likely short warning come as you are challenges from an irregular threat As the joint expeditionary force in readiness the Marine Corps and its Navy partner will maneuver from the sea to apply influence and power at a time and place of its choosing In doing so the naval team mitigates risk and sets initial conditions for the joint and interagency force Terrorism ,1979 Unmanned Carrier-Launched Airborne

Surveillance and Strike (UCLASS) Requirements Assessment United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services. Subcommittee on Seapower and Projection Forces, 2015 Navies in the 21st Century Conrad Waters, 2016-09-30 A range of naval experts build s a diverse and deeply thought out picture of where maritime warfare is now and where it is likely to go Army Rumour Service What is the purpose of navies in the modern world and what types of warship does this require This book tackles these questions by looking at naval developments both technological and operational in the quarter century since the end of the Cold War It provides the overall political and economic context assesses significant naval operations from the first Gulf War to Russia s annexation of Crimea reviews changes in the objectives and composition of the principal fleets describes major design developments amongst the main warship types and examines wider technological and operational developments including naval aviation shipbuilding and manning A high quality publication with a great many superb photographs For those wishing to keep fully informed on world naval affairs it is excellent value and strongly recommended Scuttlebutt This new book follows the successful approach and format of the very popular naval annual Seaforth's World Naval Review Under the same editor a new team of specialists have been assembled to write authoritative articles in their particular fields of expertise The absorbing text is fully supported by many outstanding images Most Recommended Firetrench Provides a most useful contextual analysis of the post Cold War period explaining how technological developments and a range of world events have variously shaped the fleets of today Warship Chinese Grand Strategy in the 21st Century Thomas M. Kane, Noah Falkovich, 2023-10-20 This book examines the state of China's grand strategy in the 21st century including political military and economic factors Over the past two decades the People's Republic of China PRC has attained the second highest gross domestic product in the world taken a leadership role in East Asian regional organisations and substantially improved its military capabilities Each of these developments and many others like them have attracted attention from scholars journalists and policymakers Less frequently acknowledged but perhaps of greater significance is the impressive congruence of Beijing's accomplishments This book highlights how the PRC's successes support one another and pave the way for future accomplishments and how these successes seem to be achieved in an unusually coherent and purposeful way As Beijing's relations with the rest of the world continue to evolve with events ranging from the ongoing global economic crisis to the turbulence in China's own stock market which may bring the PRC's government under pressure to re-order its priorities this book assesses China's grand strategy and long term approach to national policy It identifies the political military and economic instruments it is likely to use the key challenges which it will face and explores the implications for the global community This book will be of great interest to students of Chinese politics foreign policy strategic studies international security and IR in general The views expressed are those of the authors and do not reflect the official guidance or position of the U S Government the Department of Defense DoD the U S Air Force or the U S Space Force The appearance of external hyperlinks does not constitute endorsement by the DoD of the linked websites or the information products or services contained therein The DoD does not exercise any editorial security or other control over the information you may find at these locations Department of Defense Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2002 United States.
