Memorandum Of Tourism For November 2014:

The Philippines and France: Discovery, Rediscovery Aileen S. Mendiola-Rau, 2019-04-01 THE DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE PHILIPPINES AND FRANCE DID NOT MERELY BEGIN OVER 70 YEARS AGO The journey of discovery began even earlier when French cartography was being developed as early routes to and around the Philippines were first being plotted by adventurous maritime explorers The cover of this book depicts this journey a French frigate bravely traverses the seas of Guillaume Delisle's 17th century world map headed eastward in search of new discoveries guided by the Philippine sun As both countries rediscover each other by building an even better relationship in the future it will be a continuous journey of both discovery and rediscovery

Marine Transboundary Conservation and Protected Areas Peter Mackelworth, 2016-04-28 The marine environment does not naturally respect arbitrary international boundaries The establishment and management of transboundary marine protected areas therefore presents major governance challenges This book analyses a series of marine transboundary conservation initiatives embedded in varying contextual situations to examine the underlying reasons for their success or failure Utilising an adapted pathways of influence framework it provides insights into the development of marine transboundary conservation initiatives looking at the effectiveness of international rules international norms and discourse market forces and direct access to policy making Examples come from a wide range of jurisdictions including territorial seas continental shelves exclusive economic zones and areas beyond national jurisdiction Case studies include initiatives in the Coral Triangle West Africa Central America the Wadden Sea the Red Sea and the Mediterranean Sea In addition the authors assess the potential for developing wider international cooperation as a result of relationships forged through involvement within these marine transboundary conservation initiatives

Jamaica International Monetary Fund. Western Hemisphere Dept., 2014-12-23 Discussions centered on the preparations for the 2015/16 budget and reforms to strengthen the financial sector and boost growth The authorities have deepened their efforts in supporting their ambitious fiscal goals by strengthening public financial management and revenue administration and they reiterated their resolve to continue containing the wage bill Steps have also been identified to advance the reform of the securities dealers and to increase the resilience of the financial system
