Men of the Bible: Some Lesser-known Characters , 1904 Men of the Bible; Some Lesser-Known Characters - George Milligan George Milligan, 2010-02-25. A passage from the book: Enoch was the bright particular star of the patriarchal epoch. His record is short but eloquent. It is crowded into a few words, but every word when placed under examination expands indefinitely. Every virtue may be read into them; every eulogium possible to a human character shines from them. He was a devout man, a fearless preacher of righteousness, an intimate friend of God, and the only man of his dispensation who did not see death. He sheds a lustre on the antediluvian age, and he shines still as an example to all generations of steady and lofty piety.
