Men With Cats Intimate Portraits Of Feline Friendship:

Men With Cats David Williams, 2016-02-02 Celebrate man's other best friend the cat in this delightful gift book for pet lovers, feline fans and anyone who appreciates cats and the dudes who love them. Countless books and blogs have extolled the virtues of the Cat Lady, now photographer David Williams celebrates cat-owning men and the precious kitties who have stolen their hearts. His subjects represent a cross-section of American society: musicians and artists, soldiers and CEOs, truck drivers and tattoo artists, with one very furry common denominator. These fun, fuzzy and offbeat portraits are full of personality and the accompanying stories share everything from how we met to how the cats earned their names. The Photographed Cat Arnold Arluke, Lauren Rolfe, 2013-09-27 With more than 130 illustrations, The Photographed Cat: Picturing Close Human Feline Ties 1900-1940 is both an archive and an analytical exploration of the close relationships between Americans and their cats during a period that is significant for photography and for modern understandings of animals as pets. This volume examines the cultural implications of feline companions while also celebrating the intimacy and joys of pets and family photographs. In seven thematic sections, Arluke and Rolfe engage with the collection of antique images as representations of real relationships and of ideal relationships, noting the cultural trends and tropes that occur throughout this increasingly popular practice. Whether as surrogate children, mascots or companions to women, cats are part of modern American life and visual culture. Entertaining, smart and filled with a collector's trove of wonderful images, The Photographed Cat pays homage to the surprising range of relationships we have with cats and offers thoughtful consideration of the ways in which we represent them. Hidden Faces: Covered Portraits of the Renaissance Alison Manges Nogueira, 2024-04-02 Many small Renaissance portraits were richly adorned with covers or backs bearing allegorical figures, mythological scenes or emblems that celebrated the sitter and invited the viewer to decipher their meaning. Hidden Faces includes seventy objects ranging in format from covered paintings to miniature boxes that illuminate the symbiotic relationship between the portrait and its pair. Texts by thirteen distinguished scholars vividly illustrate that the other faces of these portraits represent some of the most innovative images of the Renaissance created by masters such as Hans Memling and Titian. Uniting works that have in some cases been separated for centuries, this fascinating volume shows how the multifaceted format unveiled the sitter's identity both by physically revealing the portrait and reading the significance behind its cover. David Hockney David Hockney, Sarah Howgate, Barbara Stern Shapiro, Mark Glazebrook, Marco Livingstone, Edmund White, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, National Portrait Gallery (London), 2006-01-01 David Hockney b. 1937 is one of the most significant artists exploring and pushing the boundaries of figurative art today. Hockney has been engaged with portraiture since his teenage years when he painted Portrait of My Father 1955 and his self-portraits and depictions of family, lovers and friends represent an intimate visual diary of the artist's life. This beautifully illustrated book examines Hockney's portraits in all media: painting, drawing, photography and prints, and has been produced in close collaboration with the artist.

Featured subjects include members of Hockney's family and private circle as well as portraits of such artists and cultural figures as Lucian Freud, Francesco Clemente, R. B. Kitaj, Helmet Newton, Lawrence Weschler, and W. H. Auden. The authors reveal how Hockney's creative development and concerns about representation can be traced through his portrait work from his battle with naturalism to his experimentation with and later rejection of photography and from his recent camera lucida drawings to his return to painting from life. Featuring more than 250 works from the past fifty years, David Hockney: Portraits illustrates not only the fascinating range of Hockney's creative practice but also the unique and cyclical nature of his artistic concerns.

New York Magazine, 1986-03-31 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

Guys Can Be Cat Ladies Too Michael Showalter, 2013-09-03 Mixes the funny with the feline. Showalter makes us laugh while revealing that he's a big softie who cares a lot about the future of felines. Catster Michael Showalter's Guys Can Be Cat Ladies Too is the hilarious all-access guide to help a man comprehend, appreciate, and bond with the felines in his life. They say dogs are a man's best friend. True. But what if that man's girlfriend, boyfriend, wife, husband, or mother-in-law has a cat? Is that the end for him? Is he resigned to an eternity of estrangement from this furry creature with which he shares his life, partner, his favorite chair, and his sock drawer? Showalter offers hope for men everywhere in their quest to understand and love cats. In this intimate portrait of one man's love for cats, you will learn the answers to burning questions such as: Why are they all aloof and weird and stuff? They hate me, right? And is it true that they have nine lives? Armed with these and countless other valuable lessons by the book's end, any guy can be on the fast track to becoming a cat's best friend. Showalter enlightens the male species on how to become loving cat people; it's an inside scoop on how men can learn to love the felines that come into their lives by no choice of their own.
