Le Grain de la voix. Entretiens (1962-1980) Roland Barthes, 2015-05-05T00:00:00+02:00 Ce qui se perd dans la transcription c'est tout simplement le corps du moins ce corps extérieur contingent qui en situation de dialogue lance vers un autre corps tout aussi fragile ou affolé que lui des messages intellectuellement vides dont la seule fonction est en quelque sorte d'accrocher l'autre voire au sens prostitutionnel du terme et de le maintenir dans son état de partenaire Transcrire la parole change évidemment de destinataire et par conséquent de sujet car il n'est pas de sujet sans Autre Le corps quoique toujours présent pas de langage sans corps cesse de coïncider avec la personne ou pour mieux dire encore la personnalité L'imaginaire du parleur change d'espace il ne s'agit plus de demande d'appel il ne s'agit plus d'un jeu de contacts il s'agit d'installer de représenter un discontinu articulé c'est dire en fait une argumentation R B

Kundera and the Ambiguity of Authorship Christine

Angela Knoop, 2011 The scholarly debate about authorship has not only transcended all aspects of literary studies but has also prompted contemporary authors to counter subvert and challenge it One author to whom this applies in particular is Milan Kundera In this study Christine Knoop re-examines Kundera's essayistic and novelistic work against the background of the theoretical paradigms of literary authority intention and ownership In so doing she demonstrates how he overcomes traditional theoretical distinctions by postulating the existence of both a strong powerful author figure and of potentially boundless literary meaning Kundera's radically ambiguous conception of the author in the novel developed primarily to influence the reader is discussed and developed to cast new light on the critical debate about authorship at large while maintaining his primary conjecture that authorship as such is perpetually hybrid dynamic and unfinished Christine Angela Knoop is a Postdoctoral Research Associate for Comparative Literature at Freie Universität Berlin

Writing and Reading

Differently George Douglas Atkins, Michael L. Johnson, 1985      Post-War French Popular Music: Cultural Identity and the Brel-Brassens-Ferré Myth Adeline Cordier, 2016-04-08 Jacques Brel Georges Brassens and L o Ferr are three emblematic figures of post war French popular music who have been constantly associated with each other by the public and the media They have been described as the epitome of chanson and of Frenchness But there is more to the trio than a musical trinity this new study examines the factors of cultural and national identity that have held together the myth of the trio since its creation This book identifies the combination of cultural and historical circumstances from which the works of these three singers emerged It presents an innovative analysis of the correlation between this iconic trio and the evolution of national myths that nurtured the cultural aspirations of post war French society It explores the ways in which Brel Brassens and Ferr embody the myth of the left wing intellectual and of the authentic Gaul spirit and it discusses the ambiguous attitude of post war French society towards gender relations The book takes an original look at the trio by demonstrating how it illustrates the popular representation of a key issue of French national identity the paradoxical aspiration to both revolution and the maintenance of the status quo      Encounters with the Other Martin Calder, 2021-12-28 Encounters with the Other brings together a range of eighteenth century texts in which the exploration of lingua incognita figures as a prominent topos Drawing mostly on a corpus of French texts but also including a number of works in English Martin Calder attempts to realign well known texts with more canonically marginalized works The originality of the perspectives offered by this book lies in the comparative reading of works not previously conjoined Encounters with otherness are marked by a transgression of the limits of language occurring when language becomes alien or unfamiliar Alterity may take various forms a foreign language a familiar language marked by the traits of foreignness something unrecognizable as language or even one s own language breaking down as in madness Unfamiliar language may be produced by a foreigner by a child who cannot yet speak in extreme cases by something unrecognizably human in all cases by an agency somehow marked by difference Narratives of encounters with otherness have written into them narratives of the discovery of the self Implicitly informed by the reading techniques associated with literary theory Encounters with the Other offers an insightful commentary on issues surrounding colonialism cultural difference gender and the importance of language to identity Martin Calder s work challenges certain Eurocentric notions and exposes the problematic links between Enlightenment rationality and colonial expansion This book is of interest both to undergraduate students and to academic researchers and to a more general readership concerned with understanding the relationship between Europe the West and a wider world      Roland Barthes Mike Gane, Nicholas Gane, 2004      Argumentation Daniela Pirazzini, 2009 Les travaux de ce volume ont t pr sent s dans le cadre de la section Argumentation du XXX Congr s des Romanistes allemands tenu Vienne en septembre 2007 Ils discutent plusieurs aspects essentiels du ph nom ne de l argumentation dans une perspective th orique et m thodologique autour du rapport r ciproque langue argumentation et dans sa relation l analyse du discours La prise en consid ration dans les contributions de ce volume
