Analysis of Multinational Strategic Management Alan M. Rugman, Alain Verbeke, 2005 Characterized by new analytical insights and methods in the field of international business this collection of articles by Alan Rugman and Alain Verbeke celebrates their long and productive work together on issues facing top managers of multinational enterprises Fueled by their belief in the need for better theory in multinational strategic management the authors have explored a number of different facets in this increasingly important realm They have organized the work into five sections the foundations of a new theory of multinational strategic management a radically new examination of multinational strategic management national competitiveness the relatively under researched but increasingly important issue of environmental strategies of multinational enterprises and the interactions between multinational strategic management and public policy This outstanding collection inspired by the occasion of Alan Rugman's 60th birthday will be of great interest to scholars and practitioners of international business and management as well as to economists and lawyers Books in Print Supplement, 2002

The Structural Foundations of International Finance Padoan, P.C. Brenton, P.A. Boyd, G., 2003 The principal message of this book is that international financial enterprises must be reoriented towards funding productive activities rather than potentially destabilizing speculation The effects of financial sector operations are addressed with serious warnings that the dangers of speculative destabilization are increasing as regulatory and market discipline gradually weakens The Structural Foundations of International Finance examines the ways in which national economies especially those of industrialized countries are affected by the operations of international financial markets Although these markets provide productive funding there is also much speculative trading in stocks and currencies which can cause booms slumps and hinder recovery The authors advocate entrepreneurial coordination by productive enterprises for balanced and stable growth with reduced risks of financial crises and recessions
