

TAXATION

General Principles

1. Consider the following statements:
I. The power of taxation involves the promulgation of rules.
II. The state has the power to impose taxes even without a constitutional grant.
III. Taxes are based upon the lifeblood theory.
IV. There should be no improper delegation of the power to tax.
Which of the following is true?
A. Statements I and II are both manifestations of taxation being legislative in nature.
B. Statements II and IV are both manifestations of taxation being legislative in nature.
C. Statements I and IV are both manifestations of the inherent nature of taxation.
D. Statements II and III are both manifestations of the inherent nature of taxation.
2. The power to tax is the power to destroy. Is this always so?
A. No. The Executive Branch may decide not to enforce a tax law which it believes to be confiscatory.
B. Yes. The tax collectors should enforce a tax law even if it results to the destruction of the property rights of a taxpayer.
C. Yes. Tax laws should always be enforced because without taxes, the very existence of the State is endangered.
D. No. The Supreme Court may nullify a tax law, hence, property rights are not affected.
3. The City of Iloilo passed an ordinance imposing a license fee on all motor vehicles entering the city between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Commuters assailed the validity of the law. Decide on the validity of the ordinance.
A. Valid, because it was issued as a source of revenue.
B. Valid, because it is a legitimate exercise of police power.
C. Void, because it discriminates against those who are not able to pay the license fee, particularly, the low-salaried workers.
D. Void, because it is not imposed by any other city.
4. One of the characteristics of a sound tax system is administrative feasibility, which requires that:
A. The amount of taxes should be collected based on ability to pay.
B. Tax administration must be honest and accountable.
C. Tax laws must be capable of effective and efficient enforcement.
D. Taxes collected must be sufficient to meet the needs of the government.
5. Real property taxes should not disregard increases in the value of real property occurring over a long period of time. To do otherwise would violate the canon of a sound tax system referred to as:
A. Theoretical justice
B. Fiscal adequacy
C. Administrative feasibility
D. Symbiotic relationship
6. Which theory in taxation states that without taxes, a government would be paralyzed for lack of power to activate and operate it, resulting in its destruction?

C. Sumptuary theory
D. Symbiotic doctrine

Toward Understanding The Nigeria-Biafra War and Lingerin Questions Joseph Nnodim,2022-11-14 Toward Understanding the Nigeria Biafra War and Lingerin Questions is a well researched account of the British engagement with the peoples of the lower Niger river basin which resulted in the fabrication of a Nigerian state under insincere and contrived premises The myriad ethnic groups shared nothing cherishable and never managed to find commonality of purpose or civic principle no small thanks to colonial policies predicated on divide et impera As a result the indigenous political class was bequeathed a toxic legacy of interethnic suspicion incoherence and disharmony at independence in 1960 Crisis followed crisis until the armed forces intervened and the First Republic collapsed in 1966 A further cascade of tragic events including the mass slaughter of people of the East caused that region to proclaim itself the independent sovereign Republic of Biafra in 1967 A civil war ensued and the critical developments during the crucial combat period are exhaustively chronicled The Biafran capital Enugu fell after three months of bitter fighting A war of attrition ensued lasting twenty seven more months during which at least one million babies and children succumbed to inanition The Nigeria Biafra War stands out ignominiously as one of the very rare conflicts in modern history in which one of the belligerents overtly declared its intention to starve its adversary into submission and clung to that policy even when it became abundantly clear that the victims were predominantly babies No proper accounting has been demanded or given The Igbo were the largest of the ethnic groups in the Republic of Biafra They had been in the vanguard of the struggle for Nigeria s independence and unity but paradoxically became the whipping boy in the postcolonial era when the country lost its collective mind They were subjected to untold savagery before as well as during the civil war whose repercussions they continue to suffer to the present day Their ethnography is explored in the context of both the conflict and the entirety of their Nigerian experience Economics from a Global Perspective Alan Glanville,Jacob Glanville,2011-03-01 Normal 0 0 1 198 1134 9 2 1392 11 1539 1280x1024 0 0 0 Economics from a Global Perspective was the first textbook on IB Diploma economics in the market originally launched in 1995 helping define the syllabus in terms of breadth and depth for teachers and constituting the main reference source for students Over 50 000 copies have been sold to date With Forewords by Gareth Rees Manuel Fernandez Canque Andrew Maclehorse Features of the Third Edition l Covers the entire IB Diploma syllabus for
