Caillou, Lights Out!, 2015-09-15 A winter storm knocks the power out at Caillou's house. Caillou is confused when the lights don't work. But soon the evening turns into an indoor camping adventure complete with marshmallows roasted in the fireplace. Caillou is especially delighted when he gets to sleep by the hearth in his sleeping bag. The Mysteries of Paris Eugène Sue, 1844 School Library Journal, 2009 Apps, Technology and Younger Learners Natalia Kucirkova, Garry Falloon, 2016-11-10 This book provides an in-depth analysis of the challenges, potential, and theoretical possibilities of apps and considers the processes of change for education and home learning environments. Drawing together a diverse team of international contributors, it addresses the specific features, context of use, and content of apps to uncover the importance of these tools for young children's learning. Apps, Technology and Younger Learners focuses on ways that apps support early years and primary school learning, connect various learning spaces, and engage children in a range of edutainment and knowledge-building activities. In each chapter, the current state of knowledge and key research questions in the field for future study are identified, with clear messages provided at the end of each chapter. Focusing on empirical studies and strong theoretical frameworks, this book covers four key parts: Understanding the learning potential of children's apps; Key app challenges; Empirical evidence; Future avenues. This book is an essential guide for educators, postgraduate students, researchers, and all those interested in the advantages or challenges that may result from integrating apps into early education. The Book Trade in Canada, 2008 Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 Publishers' Directory Gale Group, 2003 Provides detailed information on more than 20,000 U.S. and Canadian publishers, including nearly 1,000 distributors, wholesalers, and jobbers, as well as small independent presses. The latest edition adds approximately 500 new entries with increased Canadian listings and Web site and e-mail addresses. Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M. Wilson, 2003 The Object of Literature Pierre Macherey, 1995-03-16 This 1995 book by Pierre Macherey was his first dealing with literature and theory since his seminal A Theory of Literary Production. Continuing the project of Althusserian theory, Macherey engages in a series of close exegeses of classical texts in French literature and philosophy from the late eighteenth century down to the 1970s that explore the historically variable but thematically similar ways in which literary texts represent philosophical ideas. Rejecting the simple notion that literature deploys philosophical topoi in an unmediated manner, Macherey shows the conceptual sophistication and broad intellectual influence that literary art has displayed in the modern period. At once a theoretical meditation of great originality and a historical work of scrupulous scholarship, The Object of Literature will entrench Pierre Macherey's already considerable reputation as one of the most significant contemporary theoreticians of literature.
