2029 Economic Crisis and Civil War in South Africa The Messenger, 2014-07-17 The book analyses the current problems in South Africa Many people are seeing that unemployment and the plight of the masses will reach the point of no return The gradual decline of the economy is due to various factors but is exacerbated by corruption and lack of responsibility and accountability South Africa has reached a 50 year low in productivity due to affirmative action BEE and the perception of life owes me The current war between management and labour for higher wages will continue The threat of retrenchments will become a reality All the gold mines will follow The falling gold price predicts this All of this leads to only one thing our mutual enemy unemployment

Mudimu, Kirk Helliker, 2024-03-01 This edited volume systematically interrogates the Chinese investment presence in Africa focusing on land and agriculture mining and other infrastructural projects In doing so the form and extent of Chinese debt will be brought into perspective with comparisons made to investments in Africa emanating from metropolitan capitalism The volume examines the development potential of these investments by focusing on the labour regimes created and the effects of investments on the land based agricultural livelihoods of the African peasantry This entails the use of a political economy approach which incorporates the state international actors and local communities into the analysis with gender dynamics also of great significance Overall the contributions in this volume focus on an array of African nations with a specific focus on Zimbabwe and they deploy a large wealth of primary field based data collected over a number of years by established and emerging scholars living and working on the continent

Institutional Arrangements for Conservation, Development and Tourism in Eastern and Southern Africa René van der Duim, Machiel Lamers, Jakomijn van Wijk, 2014-11-16 This book presents an overview of different institutional arrangements for tourism biodiversity conservation and rural poverty reduction in eastern and southern Africa These approaches range from conservancies in Namibia community based organizations in Botswana conservation enterprises in Kenya private game reserves in South Africa to sport hunting in Uganda and transfrontier conservation areas The book presents a comparative analysis of these arrangements and highlights that most arrangements emerged in the 1990s through either a decentralized or centralized change trajectory that was sponsored by donors They aim to address some of the challenges of the fortress types of conservation by combining principles of community based natural resource management with a neoliberal approach to conservation evident in the use of tourism as the main mechanism for accruing benefits from wildlife The book illustrates the empirical relevance of these novel arrangements by presenting their growth in numbers and discuss how these arrangements differ in their form With respect to the conservation and development impacts of these arrangements we show that they have secured large amounts of land for conservation but also generated governance challenges and disputes on tourism benefit sharing affecting the stability of these arrangements to generate socioeconomic and conservation benefits

A Matter of Weeks Rather Than Months J R T

Wood, 2012-08-02 Founded on 35 years of research into the post 1945 Anglo Rhodesian history this book complements Richard Wood's The Welensky Papers A History of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland 1953 1963 1983 and So Far and No Further Rhodesia's bid for independence during the retreat from empire 1959 1965 2005 Of So Far Michael Hartnack wrote that Once in a lifetime comes a book which must force a total shift in the thinking person's perception of an epoch and of all the prominent characters who featured in it A Matter of Weeks Rather than Months recounts the action and reaction to Ian Smith's unilateral declaration of Rhodesia's independence the second such declaration since the American one of 1776 It examines the dilemmas of both sides Smith's problem was how to legitimise his rebellion to secure crucial investment capital markets trade and more His antagonist the British Prime Minister Harold Wilson was determined not to transfer sovereignty until Rhodesia accepted African majority rule in common with the rest of Africa Given British feelings for their Rhodesian kith and kin and Rhodesia's landlocked position Wilson eschewed the use of force He could only impose sanctions but hoped they would defeat Smith in a matter weeks rather than months The Rhodesians however evaded the sanctions with such success that they forced Wilson to negotiate a settlement Negotiations were nevertheless doomed because the self-confident Rhodesians would not accept a period of direct British rule while rapid progress to majority rule was made or the imposition of restraints on powers they had possessed since gaining self-government in 1923 In tune with their allies in the African National Congress of South Africa the Rhodesian or Zimbabwean African nationalists had already adopted the Marxist concept of the Armed Struggle as a means to power Sponsored by the Communist Bloc its surrogates and allies they began a series of armed incursions from their safe haven in Zambia Although bloodily and easily repulsed they would learn from their mistakes as the Rhodesian forces would discover in the 1970s Consequently this is a tale of sanctions negotiations and counter insurgency warfare
