Boyles, 2011 Small group instruction becomes a strategic differentiated tool for Response to Intervention in Dr Nancy N Boyle s new resource Rethinking Small group Instruction in the Intermediate Grades In this complete and ready to go resource Dr Boyles answers key questions about transforming small group instruction to meet RTI objectives How can I teach comprehension strategies during small group instruction How do I align high stakes standards with comprehension objectives Where do fluency vocabulary and author s craft fit in small group discussion How can I explicitly teach skills and promote meaningful discussions and How do I effectively include intermediate grade students who function at a primary level Rethinking Small group Instruction in the Intermediate Grades provides sixteen options to differentiate small group instruction Teachers focus on reinforcing comprehension skills and strategies while explicitly teaching students how to construct basic meaning about both literary and informational texts and master the art of discourse which leads to higher level critical and creative thinking Boyles shows intermediate teachers how to embed the Common Core State Standards into small group instruction and provides all of the rubrics checklists planning templates and prompts necessary to implement these instructional formats in both the book and the included CD The useful CD also contains target sheets matched to each objective that explain how to find the best evidence to meet the objective Let Rethinking Small group Instruction maximize the power of your small group instruction to differentiate your teaching and efficiently meet RTI goals and national standards at the same time

Power, Culture, and Family-School Relations Jen Stacy, 2025-01-30 Power Culture and Family School Relations Towards Culturally Sustaining Practices explores the extent to which common practices in school based family outreach advance equity or sustain the status quo in power and cultural relations Using a rich ethnographic account of a school based family literacy program in Nebraska the book unfolds the daily cultural practices of the program so that readers may visualize and contemplate how and if the program serves newcomer and refugee families within the unique context of the New Latine Diaspora The author draws upon critical theory to showcase how neoliberal and deficit ideologies are at play throughout the different aspects of the program the influence these ideologies have on the participants and the tactics used by the caregivers to resist and change the programmatic structures and curriculum to meet their needs As such the book invites educators administrators and scholars into the nebulous and difficult conversation about how schools paradoxical entities that often colonize but prospectively liberate must not just rethink how they work with parents and caregivers but rather dismantle traditional cultural practices that seek to assimilate minoritized families Showcasing the power of ethnography as a tool which can be used to support educators and scholars to understand cultural elements of family outreach programs on a semiotic level and how transforming these semiotic building blocks can lead to equitable relationships it will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests in adult education social foundations of education critical ethnography multilingual Adult Basic Education and family outreach
