House of Sticks Ly Tran, 2022-05-10 An intimate beautifully written coming of age memoir a young girl's journey from war torn Vietnam to Ridgewood Queens and her struggle to find her voice amid clashing cultural expectations Ly Tran is just a toddler in 1993 when she and her family emigrate from a small town along the Mekong River in Vietnam to a two bedroom railroad apartment in Ridgewood Queens Ly's father a former lieutenant in the South Vietnamese army spent nearly a decade as a POW and their resettlement is made possible through a humanitarian program run by the US government Soon after they arrive Ly joins her parents and three older brothers in sewing ties and cummerbunds piecemeal on their living room floor to make ends meet As they navigate this new landscape Ly finds herself torn between two worlds She knows she must honor her parents Buddhist faith and contribute to the family livelihood working long hours at home and then later as a manicurist alongside her mother at a nail salon in Brownsville Brooklyn which her parents eventually take over But at school Ly feels the mounting pressure to blend in A growing inability to see the blackboard presents new challenges especially when her father forbids her from getting glasses calling her diagnosis of poor vision a government conspiracy His frightening temper and paranoia leave an indelible mark on Ly's sense of self Who is she outside of everything her family expects of her Told in a spare evocative voice that with flashes of humor weaves together her family's immigration experience with her own fraught and courageous coming of age House of Sticks is a timely and powerful portrait of one girl's struggle to reckon with her heritage and forge her own path
