

Professional Growth Plan Template

	Ongoing Collaborative Learning Through Professional Development	Ongoing Learning Through Personal Growth	Ongoing Learning Through Advancement of Education
Goal	Around year three or four of my teaching profession I want to start doing something called action research. Where I am going to be collaborating with different educators who have way more experience in the field of early childhood education. Regarding future learning, the main goal that I have when it comes to professional development is to attend several virtual online trainings and conferences to learn and grow as an educator.	I will dedicate my time and efforts into reading one book per month on professional development. I will also spend my time reading academic journals that are focused on different types of research in education. Which is going to provide me with an insight into personal growth and interpersonal skills. Which I can use to improve and grow my teaching skills and methods. I am also going to start a journal that will not just help me track but also reflect on my progress and help me improve my self-awareness.	After I complete my bachelor's degree, my next step is to continue to go to school and advance my education by getting a master's degree in autism spectrum disorder (ASD).
Plan/Steps	The first thing that I am going to do is drastically improve my social media presence. Most social media platforms aren't very professional but there are some social media apps that	I will start off by sorting through academic journals specifically once that have topics on professional development, research, and interpersonal skills development. I	After completing the program that I am currently pursuing I will enroll in Grand Canyon University's Master of Arts in Autism Spectrum Disorder. Enrolling in this program will provide
