Seeing Eye to Eye Jonathan Kettleborough, 2012-12-04 People Professionals are under pressure from all areas Theyre being asked to deliver more with less to justify their existence and to show how their activities have a positive benefit on the businesses they serve Budgets are constantly under pressure and in some quarters are being slashed Times are tight and are set to stay that way for some time to come But it doesnt have to be this way Its possible to rise above these issues and demonstrate that People Professionals can deliver lasting value but to do that you must listen to the needs of your businesses for if you do that and do it right then you can set yourselves up for long term success This book will guide you through the changes necessary to create alignment with your business This means being able to say goodbye to constant budget cuts and lack of interest from senior executives instead with the right approach you'll be able to say hello to adding real value to your business and customers. You'll start to get the investment you deserve for your projects to be approached by senior executives to solve complex business problems and to be thanked and praised by your Managing Director Chief Executive Officer for all the positive changes you've made. It's your future and it's in your hands.

Corporate Social Responsibility and Brand Value in Luxury Ramon Bravo Gonzalez, 2017-06-28 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2017 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade NA University of Glasgow Adam Smith Business School language English abstract Within luxury an area that is becoming increasingly important due to the visibility of this industry is Corporate Social Responsibility CSR While consumers are still not actively demanding CSR in luxury products and services and there is evidence that CSR is not a key area of interest for the luxury industry the luxury industry is becoming the target of non governmental organizations NGOs and other stakeholders interested in environmental and ethical practices Thus it is essential that luxury companies explore CSR implementation as neglecting to do so is likely to affect their brands and their brand value Due to the increasing relevance of CSR within luxury this research explores the role of CSR within luxury and how it together with other factors contributes to brand value in luxury An additional consideration is that despite the importance of brand value in luxury the industry does not normally measure manage and leverage brand value As a result it is also necessary to examine how brand value is perceived within luxury To meet these research goals a mixed methods approach was selected More specifically a theoretical framework was built with input from the literature and interviews with key interviewees from the luxury industry Then the theoretical framework was tested quantitatively The quantitative analysis was conducted with a dataset based on consumer panels and additional secondary data including Bloomberg CSRHUB Dow Jones Sustainability Index DJSI Interbrand and company reports The results were subject to credibility checks with interviewees from the industry It is noteworthy to highlight that for the statistical analysis one of the largest datasets with US consumer data was used Similarly for the qualitative interviews representatives from some of the largest luxury companies in the world in terms of brand value and luxury stakeholders were recruited
