Prose and Fiction Part-III Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-06-23 In this book, we will study about global literary trends in fiction and prose, exploring cultural, philosophical, and socio-political influences. Richard Wright Kenneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright (1908-1960) was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son. By 1947, he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris. But his writings changed American culture forever, and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes. He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers. This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays, books, and articles from 1983 through 2003, arranged alphabetically by author. Within years, there are some 8320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book-length studies of African American literature and literary criticism. Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982. This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics.
