Kapooka Dates 2014:

Mosul Ben Mckelvey, 2020-09-29 From the best selling author of The Commando and Born to Fight comes a fascinating investigation of modern warfare that combines methodical research and the fast paced action of battle with the personal stories of the combatants on both sides of the line Taking us from the suburbs of western Sydney and Australia's military army bases to the battlefields of Afghanistan and Iraq this is a remarkable book that reveals the as yet untold story of the battle for Mosul and the secret involvement of Australians on both sides of the war both our Commandos and Australian ISIS fighters Mosul details the rise of ISIS influence in Australia the Iran and Australia allegiance to fight Daesh and shows what led up to the battle and the ramifications that are still being felt at home by our soldiers and the victims of that war Ben Mckelvey has extraordinary access to SOOCOMD 2COMMANDO units the most decorated modern Australian fighting unit ISOF Iraq's premier fighters Yazidis women who had been slaves of ISIS returned Commandos and their devastated families and explains how petty criminals in Western Sydney became some of our worst jihadists who took their families to Iraq to fight for ISIS Focusing on the stories of key figures like 2 Commando's Ian Turner and one of Australia's most infamous Jihadist Khaled Sharrouf Mckelvey takes us the heart of this brutal battle and brings history to life in an honest thoughtful and compelling examination of modern warfare A must read for anyone interested in modern military history Defence Annual Report Australia. Department of Defence, 2010 Defending Country Noah Riseman, Richard Trembath, 2016-03-23 The role of Aboriginal servicemen and women has only recently been brought to the forefront of conversation about Australia's war history This important book makes a key contribution to recording the role played by Indigenous Australians in our recent military history Written by two respected historians and based on a substantial number of interviews with Indigenous war veterans who have hitherto been without a voice it combines the best of social and military history in one book This will be the first book to focus on this previously neglected part of Australian social history Changing Altitudes Big Sky Publishing, 2024-10-02 In the early years of the Second World War Australian women began lobbying to contribute to the nation's wartime effort From 1940 women were signing up to serve in the Royal Australian Nursing Service and in 1941 an Auxiliary arm of the Royal Australian Air Force was established allowing women to join on a temporary basis to enhance the organisation's ability to fight In the decades since Australian women have continued to contribute significantly to the operational capability of the world's second oldest air force They have done so regardless of the social norms of the time or the perceived limits of their abilities always showing their detractors that they are capable of great things Changing Altitudes The Stories of Australian Air Force Women includes the personal stories of some of these women recounting in their own words their experiences while proudly wearing the uniform of the Service This is the second volume of the Royal Australian Air Force Oral Histories series aiming to capture the one capability that the RAAF cannot operate without its people Architecture on the Borderline Anoma Pieris, 2019-06-25 Architecture on the Borderline interrogates space and territory in a turbulent present where nation state borders are porous to a few but impermeable to many It asks how these uneven and conflicted social realities are embodied in the physical and material conditions imagined produced or experienced through architecture and urbanism Drawing on historical global examples this rich collection of essays illustrates how empires nations and cities expand their frontiers and contest boundaries but equally how borderline identities of people and places influence or expose these processes Empirical chapters covering Central Asia the Asia Pacific region the American continent Europe and the Middle East offer multiple critical insights into the ways in which our spatial imagination is contingent on border thinking on the ways of being and navigating frontiers boundaries and margins the three themes used to organise their content The underlying premise of the book is that sensitisation to border conditions can alter our understanding of the static physical spaces that service political or cultural ideologies and that the view from the periphery opens up new ways of understanding sovereignty In exploring these various spaces and their transformative subjectivities this book also reveals the unrelenting precarity of contesting and living on the margins and related spaces and discourses that are neglected or suppressed
