Try Your Hand at This Kathy MacMillan, 2005-11-10 American Sign Language is more than just an assortment of gestures. It is a full fledged unique language with all the characteristics of such. This helpful and user friendly guide for librarians and other library personnel involved in library programming demonstrates everything from how to set up programming involving sign language for all ages to dealing with and paying interpreters. The book also discusses how to publicize programs to the public and within the deaf community and how to evaluate and improve the library's sign language collection. Kathy MacMillan's impressive understanding and knowledge of the deaf community and the importance of sign language, as well as her exceptional handling of the numerous erroneous myths about deafness and sign language that are unfortunately still often current, make this handbook an indispensable tool for all library personnel looking to reach out to the deaf and hard of hearing community.

From Birdland to Broadway Bill Crow, 1993 In the 1950s New York City's Birdland was the center of the world of modern jazz and a revelation to Bill Crow. A wet behind the ears twenty-two year old from Washington State. Located on Broadway between 52nd and 53rd streets the club named for the incomparable Charlie Bird Parker boasted lifesize photo murals of modern jazzmen like Dizzy Gillespie, Lennie Tristano and of course Bird himself looming large against jet black walls. Exotic live birds perched in cages behind the bar. The midget master of ceremonies 3'9" Pee Wee Marquette dressed in a zoot suit and loud tie smoked huge cigars and screeched mispronounced introductions into the microphone. And the jazz struck young Crow would park in the bleachers till 4 am blissfully enveloped by the heady music of Bird, Bud Powell, Max Roach and a host of other jazz giants. From Birdland to Broadway is an enthralling insider's account of four decades of a life in jazz. Bill Crow, journeyman bass player, superb storyteller and author of the successful Jazz Anecdotes here narrates many moving and delightful tales of the pioneers of modern jazz he played with and was befriended by. We find Dizzy Gillespie with whom Crow because of prior commitments regretfully declined steady work dancing at the Royal Roost. Stan Getz sadly teetering on the brink of losing himself to drugs and Harry Belafonte known then as the Cinderella Gentleman running a lunch counter in New York's Sheridan Square between music dates. And we also witness many of the highlights of Crow's career such as in 1955 when the Marian McPartland Trio with Crow on bass was named Small Group of the Year by Metronome. Crow playing with the Gerry Mulligan Quartet at venues like Storyville in Boston and Harlem's Apollo Theater where they appeared with Dinah Washington and the tour of the Soviet Union with Benny Goodman a journey that might have been a high point of Crow's travels abroad but was marred by Goodman's legendary mistreatment of his band. Moving beyond jazz clubs to the Broadway concert pit and a variety of studio gigs in the 60s Crow encounters actors such as Yul Brynner and pop rock acts like Simon and Garfunkel. From the great to the near great from Billie Holiday to Judy Holliday Bill Crow's wealth of personal anecdotes takes the reader from Birdland to the Half Note to the Playboy Club to the footlights of Broadway. This revealing book is a marvelous
