Modern Life Ancient God A Spiritual Autobiography:

Modern Life, Ancient God Steve Nichols, 2014-10-21 In this spiritual autobiography Steve Nichols examines the modern division of life and thought into secular and sacred realms He shows how this affected his own spiritual development and walks the reader through his decades long journey of spiritual awakening He pays particular attention to the relationship between science and religion embracing both the impact of modern society on our spiritual lives and God's Spiritual Presence in the midst of everyday life In an appendix to this second edition he includes questions and answers for each chapter of the book

Neither Saints Nor Sinners Kathleen Ann Myers, 2003-08-07 This book brings together the portraits and autobiographical texts of six 17th century Latin American women drawing on primary sources that include Inquisition and canonization records confessional and mystic journals and legal defenses and petitions

Mental Phases in a Spiritual Biography George Preston Mains, 1928 Harvard College Alumni Writings. Class of 1860 Harvard College (1780-). Class of 1860, 1888

A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling, 2020-05-05 Conversion has played a central role in the history of Christianity In this first in depth and wide ranging narrative history David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity's expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming However when examined over two millennia it emerges as a phenomenon far more complex than any one dimensional profile would suggest No single unitary paradigm defines conversion and no easily explicable process accounts for why people convert to Christianity Rather a multiplicity of factors historical personal social geographical theological psychological and cultural shape the converting process A History of Christian Conversion not only narrates the conversions of select individuals and peoples it also engages current theories and models to explain conversion and examines recurring themes in the conversion process divine presence gender and the body agency and motivation testimony and memory group and self identity authentic and nominal conversion and modes of communication Accessible to scholars students and those with a general interest in conversion Kling's book is the most satisfying and comprehensive account of conversion in Christian history to date this major work will become a standard must read in conversion studies

Can Saul Alinsky Be Saved? Richard William Bledsoe, 2014-12-18 Revolutionary France of 1789 was the world's first post Christian society Leftism is an ersatz religion and France became the world's first Leftist nation Leftism is faux Christianity America is today becoming a post Christian society under a similar imitation of Christianity One of the truisms of such a society is that one can now hide behind the pretense of openness Shame which would have previously kept certain things hidden is now the only thing of which we are ashamed One can be completely open about all matters sexual for frankness about everything is now valued Yet such cultures only develop new ways of being hidden One hides in plain sight in
