The Four Roles of the Numerate Learner Mary Fiore, Maria Luisa Lebar, 2016-03-14 This timely book builds on our current understanding of how to effectively teach mathematics and borrows from the successful frameworks used to teach literacy It introduces a numeracy framework sense maker skill user thought communicator and critical interpreter that supports an integrated approach to math instruction It considers the mathematical practices students need to learn to construct number knowledge become mathematicians and simply do math The goal is to provide multiple entry points into the world of math instruction a new way of thinking and learning where learners engage in critical thinking about numeracy and act on their knowledge

Disability Studies in Education Susan Lynn Gabel, 2005 As a field of inquiry disability studies in education stands at the broad intersection of disability studies and educational studies This book introduces graduate students educational researchers and teacher educators to the range of scholarly inquiry emerging from this exciting new field Susan L Gabel pulls together a sampling of the vast array of available scholarship that includes readings that intersect curriculum theory critical policy analysis personal narrative and much more Although disability studies in education has only recently been recognized as a field of inquiry with an identifiable body of literature the chapters in this book present the work of some of the major scholars of disability studies in education

Diversity and Equity in Canadian Schools Cathlene Hillier, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2024-12-16 This edited collection introduces readers to the main concepts that comprise the spectrum of diversity and multicultural education in Canada with a particular focus on social justice and on what human flourishing might mean in these contexts Diversity and Equity in Canadian Schools blends theory and practice with each section containing one theoretical and one practical chapter devoted to each area of diversity including socio economic status gender and sexual orientation language religion geography disability ethnicity and race and Indigenous education with a continuous focus on intersectionality The first chapter in each section is conceptual providing thoughtful narrative of the historical and current concerns of the given area of diversity The second chapter then provides practical considerations for educators in the K 12 classroom building teacher capacity both to work against the structures policies curriculum and pedagogies that limit marginalized students flourishing and to build the capabilities for flourishing in all students Readers are provided with practical guidelines to help them approach each chapter with openness humility and critical engagement Diversity and Equity in Canadian Schools is well suited for Canadian university courses in Education that focus on critical multicultural education and equity diversity and inclusion in the classroom

Freedom dreaming futures for Black youth: Exploring meanings of liberation in education and psychology research Seanna Leath, Lauren Mims, Misha Inniss-Thompson, 2023-07-21 Research elucidating the developmental processes in Black children and youths schooling and educative experiences is increasing e g Carter Andrews et al 2019 Daneshzadeh Jackson Neal Jackson 2018 Yet the notion of freedom dreaming in relation to Black children and youth has received less attention within the fields of education and psychology We draw from U S historian Professor Robin D G Kelley s concept of freedom dreaming to illuminate not only what we are fighting against in the education of Black youth e g racial bias and discrimination unfair disciplinary practices and criminalization and Black youths overrepresentation in special education and underrepresentation in gifted and talented programs but also what we are fighting for liberatory educational praxis that build on Black youths individual and cultural strengths In the current call freedom dreaming refers to 1 actively uplifting the complex lives and stories of Black children and youth in educational settings 2 elevating Black children and youths intersectional experiences related to ability gender identity sexuality age and socio economic class and 3 highlighting the innovative work of scholars who understand and value community power in efforts to advance educational change We draw on Dr Bettina Love s 2019 call for educational freedom wherein she states The practice of abolitionist teaching is rooted in the internal desire we all have for freedom joy restorative justice restoring humanity not just rules and to matter to ourselves our community our family and our country with the profound understanding that we must demand the impossible by refusing injustice and the disposability of dark children p 7
