Poetry & Nonfiction Passages

Perspectives on History: Compare Two Texts

Read the poem "The New Colossus" and the article "A Liberty History." Then, answer the questions.

The New Colossus

By Emma Lazarra

I entered when the poem in 1893 as a response to a call for the construction of the base of the Statue of Liberty. The poem was later engraved on the statue's pedestal.

Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame,
With conquering limbs astride from land to land;
Here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand
A mighty woman with a torch, whose flame
Is the imprisoned lightning, and her name
Mother of Exiles. From her beacon-hand
Glowed world-wide welcome, her mild eyes command
The enfolded harbor that half opens here

A Liberty History

The Statue of Liberty is one of the most familiar symbols of America, and Liberty Island in New York's most visited tourist destinations. Did you know that this American icon named Liberty Enlightening the World, was a birthday gift from France?

The Liberator, a French anti-slavery newspaper, had been founded by the abolitionist William Lloyd Garrison. The newspaper would encourage more people to join the movement.

The statue was chosen to be placed on Liberty Island, a small island in New York Harbor. The French engineer Auguste Bartholdi designed the statue. The designers hoped to make the island a place where people would not be afraid to go.

Bartholdi traveled to New York Harbor to see the island. He was impressed by the view and the people. He decided to place the statue on the island. The statue was dedicated in 1886.

Exercises 1-5

How does the poet describe the statue?

Exercises 6-10

How does the statue speak, and what does it mean?
