Marfield & Robbier: Ch 2: Ethics and Criminal Justice Research

- Introduction
  - Some scientifically “perfect” designs are not realistic in regard to cost or the amount of time they’ll take to complete
  - Sometimes blinded to ethical considerations due to being human
- Ethical Issues in Criminal Justice Research
  - Ethical – conforming to the standards of conduct of a given profession or group
    - A matter of agreement among a group
  - Research questions typically address illegal behavior, so many ethical issues arise
  - No Harm to Participants
    - CJ research can produce embarrassment, physical harm, and/or psychological harm
      - Collecting info from those who have engaged in criminal activity
      - Research staff may be put at risk
    - Three groups at potential risk for physical harm
      - Research subjects
      - Researchers
        - Can trigger attacks on themselves if they interview subjects with a violent history
      - Third parties
        - Ex. Researchers learn that subjects intend to harm a third party
          - Should researchers maintain confidentiality or intervene to prevent harm?
    - Asking victims about their experience may be traumatic (psych)
    - Use of computerized survey can maintain privacy and prevent harm
    - Crime mapping poses a threat to privacy of victims
    - ** Possible harm to subjects may be justified if the potential benefits outweigh the harm.
  - Voluntary Participation
    - No one should be forced to participate in research.
    - Participation may not be entirely voluntary
      - Despite being told otherwise, participants are motivated by the belief that they will personally benefit from participation
        - ex. Prisoners being asked to participate after being told that they won’t receive any special reward
      - People may participate solely for some reward
      - Students may answer a questionnaire because they fear not doing so will jeopardize their grade
    - Results may not be generalizable if only those who want to participate, participate
