A. Tressler, 2022-07-12 Behind every closed door there is a story waiting to be told It may be sad or happy but most of the time it is a little bit of both The readers of the book are going to realise that they too have stories to tell and there are people out there just waiting to read them Child of the Mountain Marjorie E. Dufault, 2008-03-06 Clare Hatfield came to the small town of Kerry Georgia to get away from her overprotective mother and the heartbreaking memories of the husband and child she lost in a tragic auto accident She's built a good life here has started dating Chief Park Ranger Roy Driscoll and enjoys her job as a pediatric nurse But in the wake of a fierce storm Driscoll finds a toddler bruised and suffering from hypothermia at the base of Kerry Mountain This is the second child to appear unclaimed at the mountain in twenty years and ordinary logic cannot explain either occurrence Clare takes the child into her care and when no one claims the toddler or even appears to be looking for the girl Clare knows something is afoot She s already grown to love the girl as her own and vows to solve the mystery of the girl s appearance Driscoll and the local sheriff continue their investigation into the child s appearance only to run into constant dead ends Determined to uncover the truth Clare embarks on her own investigation where she soon stumbles upon a maze of secrecy that could very well result in tragedy Emotionally compelling Child of the Mountain weaves the threads of the past with those of the present creating a bittersweet story of love and life So Long for Now Jerry L.
