Differential Analysis: The Key to Decision Making

The Foundational 15

1. The total traceable fixed manufacturing overhead for Alpha and Beta is computed as follows:

	Alpha	Beta
Traceable fixed overhead per unit (a).....	$16	$18
Level of activity in units (b).....	100,000	100,000
Total traceable fixed overhead (a) × (b).....	$1,600,000	$1,800,000

2. The total common fixed expenses is computed as follows:

	Alpha	Beta
Common fixed expenses per unit (a).....	$15	$10
Level of activity in units (b).....	100,000	100,000
Total common fixed expenses (a) × (b).....	$1,500,000	$1,000,000

The company's total common fixed expenses would be $2,500,000.

3. The financial advantage of accepting the order is computed as follows:

Per	Total
Unit	10,000

Garrison,1988 Management Accounting,1921 Introduction to Management Accounting Dudley W. Curry,1987 Managerial Accounting Steve Jackson,Roby Sawyers,2003 This text is unique in its first person discovery learning approach using a 4 step decision making model throughout It truly conveys a management perspective by including coverage of topics such as ABM the value chain and balanced scorecard evaluation techniques It is also the first managerial text to incorporate coverage on knowledge management Ch 13 highlighting the latest developments for improved managerial decision making Managerial Accounting Michael W. Maher,Clyde P. Stickney,Roman L. Weil,2004 This classic text for MBA programs offers balanced coverage of concepts methods and uses of managerial accounting with an increasingly strong emphasis on management decision making This approach helps focus on concepts and managerial uses of financial information rather than techniques of cost accounting The current edition emphasizes international issues strategic effects of decisions ethics and new management accounting trends Also emphasized are process improvement integration of financial reporting issues for management decision making and application of managerial accounting tools to the emerging service sector government and nonprofits in examples and problem material

Managerial Accounting Irvin N. Gleim,Terry L. Campbell,1988 Management Accounting Change Danture Wickramasinghe,Chandana Alawattage,2007 Written by two experienced lecturers this is the first student centered textbook to bridge the technical and theoretical aspects of management accounting change Packed full of pedagogical features including mini cases learning outcomes key terms article summaries key concept boxes real world cases chapter summaries and further reading suggestions and resources it is clear and accessibly written covering all the major emerging topics in management accounting theory Discussing technical developments in management accounting from conventional cost accounting to contemporary strategic management accounting and beyond in four parts it shows how conventional cost accounting techniques and management control models evolved in line with the development of mass production and bureaucracy explores how recent developments such as customer and strategic orientations in business flexible manufacturing post bureaucracy network and virtual organizational technologies implicate in management accounting provides a number of alternative theories through which the transition of management accounting from mechanistic to post mechanistic approaches can be explained elaborating both rational and interpretive critical theories This excellent text meets a desperate need for an advanced management accounting textbook that incorporates theory and practice and is accessible and engaging for all those studying in this challenging area Managerial Accounting Jack L. Smith,Robert M. Keith,William L. Stephens,1988 Management Accounting Don R. Hansen,Maryanne M. Mowen,1992 EBOOK: Accounting: What the Numbers Mean David Marshall,Wayne McManus,Daniel Viele,2013-02-16 Accounting has become known as the language of business This new edition is written to meet the needs of those students who will not be accountants but who do need to understand accounting to learn the key language that embarks us in the business world Marshall the leading text in the Survey market takes readers through the basics what accounting information is what it means and how it is used The authors help students succeed through clear and concise writing a conceptual focus and unparalleled technology support In using this text students examine financial statements and discover what they do and do not communicate This enables them to gain the crucial decision making and problem solving skills they need in order to succeed in a professional environment Management Accounting Wayne J. Morse, James Richard Davis, Al L. Hartgraves, 2003 Taking a much more strategic approach the focus of this book is on the full range of cost drivers within the value chain rather than on just the distinctions between product non product costs and unit variable fixed costs Specially designed for managerial accountants this updated edition thoroughly integrates issues that have emerged during the past ten years By taking a value chain approach and stressing management accounting as an employee and management empowerment tool the content is relevant interesting and usable for those whose primary concerns are something more than financial reporting Management Accounting Charles T. Horngren, 2002 This text is appropriate for one or two term first and or second year courses in Managerial or Cost Accounting at both the college and university level The new edition of this best selling text continues to emphasize a decision making approach to prepare Canadian students to be managers of accounting information It shows how accountants prepare information that is useful to managers and demonstrates why managers in all types of organizations should have an understanding of the advantages and limitations of accounting A strategic management theme running through the text allows students to relate management accounting decisions to a company's key success factors Managerial Economics for Business, Management and Accounting Howard Davies, 1991 This text aims to show how managerial economic analysis is relevant to decision making Managerial economics is a subject which relates closely to more practical business disciplines including management accounting marketing and corporate strategy Topics discussed include consumer behaviour market behaviour demand production costing competitive structure business strategy pricing and investment Business studies undergraduates may find the book useful those studying for MBA's or the DMS may also find the book interesting Each chapter contains a list of self test questions and at the end of each chapter there is a question of examination standard Answers have been provided at the end of the book Introduction to Management Accounting Curry, Frank H. Selto, 1990-03 Introduction to Managerial Accounting Peter C. Brewer, Ray H. Garrison, Eric W. Noreen, 2006 Introduction to Managerial Accounting 3 e by Brewer Garrison Noreen is based on the market leading text Managerial Accounting by Garrison Noreen and Brewer However this is not simply a briefer book with chapters removed B G N has been rethought and retooled to meet the needs of the market B G N 3 e is a more accessible yet thoroughly student friendly text that satisfies the basic needs of the managerial accounting student without unnecessary depth on advanced topics associated with the follow up course cost accounting cost management Faculty and students alike
