

About the report

This global study, conducted by the Economist Intelligence Unit (EIU) and sponsored by Palo Alto Networks, sheds light on the ways business leaders are dealing with the increasing volume of threats they face from insecurities that arise because of disruption beyond their corporate borders.

In November 2014, the EIU surveyed 150 board members and C-suite executives in a wide variety of functional roles, from business development to operations to strategy; about half the respondents work in companies with global annual revenues exceeding $500m.

To complement the survey, the report draws on detailed desk research and in-depth interviews with the following senior executives and specialists (listed alphabetically by organisation):

- Kelly Black, managing director, Accenture Security
- Matthew Devost, co-founder, FusionX LLC; managing director, Accenture
- Travis Diering, chief security officer, chief information security officer, Barclays Plc

- Graeme Newman, chief innovation officer, CFC Underwriting Ltd.
- Henry Shembob, chief security officer, Cognizant Technology Solutions
- Arvind Narthasaram, co-founder and CEO, Cyence
- Kevin Hyams, head of the Governance, Risk and Compliance group at Friedman LLP
- Robert Cates, chief information security officer, GSK Group
- Mohamed Alkady, founder and president, Hart Inc.
- Robert Anderson, head of the cyber security practice, Navigant Consulting Inc.

We would like to thank all interviewees for their time and insight. None of the experts interviewed for this report received financial compensation for participating in the interview programme. The report was written by Robert Diering and edited by Rebecca Upton.

Ready to Lead? Robin Niblett,2009 This report by Director of Chatham House Dr Robin

Niblett draws on Chatham House's international expertise and contacts to offer an in depth analysis of President Obama administration's ambitions to renew US leadership in the world. The report explores how the Obama administration can promote US global leadership at a time when many of the pillars of its international role have been weakened. Looking at how the US will need to craft new ways of using its unique power and capacity to influence others, the report's key conclusions are as follows: America needs to change how it uses its power by sharing leadership where partners have as much or more to offer; America needs to focus less on its opponents and more on supporting its friends and allies in Europe, Latin America, the Middle East and Asia; America needs to place less emphasis on individual leaders and parties and more on governance and political processes. Annual Report Brookings Institution, 2009. Securing Commitment in an Insecure World Steven Charles McKay, 2001. Global Insecurity Mary Kaldor, 2000.
