

MANDATED REPORTER ONLINE TRAINING

Text Version

If this is an emergency, for example, young children are currently alone or being beaten, call 911 or your local police department, as they are able to respond immediately.

To report a concern, call the New York State Child Abuse Hotline at 800-342-3720.

Introduction

Welcome to online Mandated Reporter Training for identifying and reporting child abuse and maltreatment/neglect.

This training is sponsored by the New York State Office of Children and Family Services (OCFS), committed to promoting the well-being and safety of our children, families, and communities. To report a concern, call the New York State Child Abuse Hotline at 1-800-342-3720.

The purpose of this training is to provide you with the knowledge to make an informed decision about whether a situation involves child abuse or maltreatment/neglect, what your reporting obligation is, and how to go about making such a report.

In the course of this training, we will cover six primary subject areas.

In the first part of the training, you will be introduced to the Child Protective Services (CPS) system, and given some background information on CPS.

From there, we will move into looking at the questions of what is child abuse; and what is maltreatment/neglect. During these sections, we will define what a child is, what child abuse is, and what maltreatment/neglect is. You will also learn to identify common indicators.
