

QUESTION ONE (30 MARKS)

Required:

Considering that strategic management is an integral part of project management:

- a) Describe the various organizational levels that would be involved in the strategy formulation. (9 marks)

Corporate level strategy

Sets long term direction for the total enterprise: By formulation of portfolio planning model, growth and diversification strategies, retrenchment and restructuring, global strategies and cooperative strategies. It focuses on what business the organization going to enter the market. For instance, a company may have three distinct lines of business projects investments, namely, automobiles, steel, and tea. The corporate level strategy will outline whether the organization should invest in or withdraw from each of these lines of businesses, and in which business unit, investments should be increased, in line with the vision of your Company[CITATION Lar20 \l 1033].

Business level strategies

This level answers the question of how you are going to compete or invest. It plays a role in those organization which have smaller units of business and each is considered as the strategic business unit (SBU)[CITATION Lar20 \l 1033].It entails defining the competitive position of a strategic business unit. This level is based upon the standard strategies of competitive strategy model, cost leadership, differentiation, and focus.

Functional level strategy

This level focuses on how an organization is going to grow. It outlines daily actions including allocation of resources to deliver corporate and business level strategies. At functional level involves putting in short-terms functional objectives, the attainment will lead to the business level strategy.

For instance, the marketing strategy for a tea business which is following the differentiation strategy may translate into launching and selling a wide variety of tea variants through company-owned retail outlets. The realization of the functional strategies in the form of quantifiable and measurable objectives will result in the achievement of business level strategies as well[CITATION Lar20 \l 1033].

Sustainable Management of Invasive Pests in Africa Saliou Niassy,Sunday Ekesi,Lorna Migiro,Washington

Otieno,2020-07-13 Invasive species generally affect economically important crops thus affecting the livelihoods of millions of people along crop value chains Typically invasive species have high migratory capabilities and because of plant material exchanges made during trade they cannot be contained by one country Usually African countries react after a pest has invaded and established itself in the country making the cost of mitigating the pest even more expensive This book presents a pan African view of the impacts of invasive insect pests on agriculture and of how invasive species impact on productivity in Africa It not only describes their importance but also presents a diversity of research findings in the field ranging from the use of early warning and monitoring systems for quarantine purposes agricultural extension all the way to control strategies The IPM arsenal presented in this book includes the use of botanical bioactive compounds semiochemicals resistant varieties biological control agents such as entomopathogens endophytes predators and natural enemies Aspects of technology transfer strategies regional coordination and farmers perceptions have not been overlooked because these affect the adoption of mitigation strategies The book also presents measures that would help agricultural research services to estimate the damage and take actions for preparedness and readiness to face invasive insect pests This starts with a basic knowledge of taxonomy to enable concerned persons to describe the insects and the vast inventory of affected crops Physiological and ecological aspects of invasive pests are strongly highlighted to strengthen Integrated Pest Management Strategies The threat of invasive species will remain permanent therefore the book encourages knowledge exchange and collaboration between researchers and scientists on the continent while encouraging the establishment of a platform or a fund for preparedness and rapid response
