Maniere Subtile De Dire Je T Aime:

Sexuality, Eroticism, and Gender in French and Francophone Literature Aaron Emmitte, Melanie Hackney, 2011-07-12

This study explores the diverse representations of sexuality eroticism and gender as expressed in French and Francophone literary thought both past and present From Fran oise de Graffigny s epistolary refusal of eroticism to the challenge of nineteenth century notions of rape in the novels of Emile Zola Victor Hugo and Eug ne Sue to desire and eroticism as social taboo in the surrealist works of Georges Bataille and Luis Bu uel its historical focus demonstrates that issues of sexuality eroticism and gender existed at the heart of France s literary tradition long before they became a staple in its universities Taking a more contemporary view it examines the notion of critique f minine in such authors as Monique Wittig Anne F Garr ta Nina Bouraoui Assia Djebar and Luce Irigaray and also challenges accusations of misogyny in the works of Michel Houellebecq While glimpsing the evolution of challenges to and conceptions regarding sexuality eroticism and gender each chapter s author focuses on language as both the obstacle and catalyst for change For example feminist strategies to avoid linguistic gender markers that subvert the phallogocentric paradigm literary portrayals of rape as a means to affect French penal code and use of the female body as language demonstrate that these notions are not only shaped by language but that language represents the key to deconstructing and redefining them Whether picking this up to read about familiar authors such as Hugo and Djebar or discovering Graffigny and Houellebecq for the first time each chapter promises to shed new light on its subject matter in regards to sexuality eroticism and or gender
