Ladislav Sutnar Visual Design In Action:

Ladislav Sutnar Reto Caduff, Steven Heller, 2014-10 Sutnar's brilliant structural systems for clarifying otherwise dense industrial data placed him in the pantheon of Modernist pioneers and made him one of the visionaries of what is today called information design Visual Design in Action is a snapshot of Sutnar's American period 1939-1976 and includes graphics for Carr's Department Store advertisements for the Vera Neumann Company identity for Addo X and other stunningly contemporary works He is best known for his total design concept for the Sweets Catalog Service and lesser known for introducing the parenthesis as a way to typographically distinguish the area code from the rest of a phone number Visual Design in Action is a testament to the historical relevance of Modernism and the philosophical resonance of Sutnar's focus on the functional beauty of total clarity This reprint of Visual Design in Action originally published in limited quantities in 1961 is as spot on about the power of design and design thinking as it ever was Ladislav Sutnar Ladislav Sutnar, 1961

Stylepedia Steven Heller, Louise Fili, 2006-11-09 A chunky distinctive object of brilliant design in and of itself Stylepedia is the first handy cross referenced desk guide to the kaleidoscope that is modern design In hundreds of illustrated entries Heller and Fili the award winning authors of Euro Deco and numerous other popular design titles survey the designers schools and movements that comprise the practice today as well as take a fascinating glimpse back at some of the seminal early leaders From the first Santa Claus to appear on a Coca Cola bottle to the increasingly ubiquitous camouflage tee shirt iconic everyday items of yesterday and today provide valuable inspiration to designers and design aficionados As quirky as it is useful and positively packed with lavish color illustrations this designer's design compendium is the only one of its kind

Design and Heritage Grace Lees-Maffei, Rebecca Houze, 2021-12-29 Design and Heritage provides the first extended study of heritage from the point of view of design history Exploring the material objects and spaces that contribute to our experience of heritage the volume also examines the processes and practices that shape them Bringing together 18 case studies written by authors from the United States the United Kingdom Canada Brazil Norway India South Africa Australia and New Zealand the book questions how design functions to produce heritage Including provocative case studies of objects that reinterpret visual symbols of cultural identity and buildings and monuments that evoke feelings of national pride and historical memory as well as landscapes embedded with trauma contributors consider how we can work to develop adequate shared conceptual models of heritage and apply them to design and its histories Exploring the distinction between tangible and intangible heritages the chapters consider what these categories mean for design history and heritage Finally the book questions whether it might be possible to promote a truly equitable understanding of heritage that illuminates the social cultural and economic roles of design Design and Heritage demonstrates that design historical methods of inquiry contribute significantly to critical heritage studies Academics researchers and students engaged in the study of heritage design history
