The Complete Lover Angelica Goodden,1989 Sentiment and sentimental education are central themes in French novels of the 18th century However what do these fictions really say about the art and practice of love What part should the emotions or the intellect play in sexual relationships Will the lover find fulfillment in sophisticated urban society or in the natural world Is a man's approach different from a woman's This study looks at these questions and tracks the pursuit of eros through such works as Crillon's Les Egarements du coeur et de l'esprit Prevost's Manon Lescaut Rousseau's La Nouvelle Heloise Diderot's La Religieuse and Laclos's Les Liaisons Dangereuses Goodden considers the interplay between love and friendship the portrayal of beauty and the rhetoric of passion to show that the dual character of the 18th century is reflected in the lover who becomes complete by allowing reason to guide sentiment A History of French Dramatic Literature in the
