Space and Time in Languages and Cultures Luna Filipović,2012 Space-Time (Dis)continuities in the Linguistic Landscape Isabelle Buchstaller,Małgorzata Fabiszak,Melody Ann Ross,2024-03-27 This collection spotlights the diachronic dimensions of the linguistic landscape the importance of exploring temporal dissonances in historical events in order to better understand semiotic political and social transformations across different communities over the last century The volume seeks to expand the current borders of linguistic landscape LL research by situating the analysis of signs in the LL within their time space organization which has been understudied in existing scholarship The book featuring chapters from established and emerging scholars argues that a focus on the historicity of the city text can reveal unique insights into the role of semiotic processes as precursors and support mechanisms for political and social changes The collection is structured around different temporal clusters and geographic contexts across the globe where shorter and longer waves of politically driven resemioticization can be most sharply observed post colonial communities post communist societies and recent and current sociopolitical upheavals Taken together the volume proposes a kaleidoscope view of the complex temporalities that underpin multimodal discourses in contested public spaces offering new directions for LL research This book will be of interest to students and scholars in sociolinguistics discourse analysis semiotics visual anthropology and political science The Introduction and Chapter 8 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BYNC ND 4.0 license
