Advances in Medical Education A.J.J.A. Scherpbier, Cees P.M. van der Vleuten, J.J. Rethans, A.F.W. van der Steeg, 2012-12-06 About 550 registrants from 51 different countries attended the Seventh Ottawa Conference on Medical Education and Assessment in Maastricht We received 525 abstracts for the conference divided in thematic poster sessions and platform presentations Organising the conference was an honour and we tried to meet the high standards of a friendly and relaxed atmosphere which has characterized previous Ottawa conferences During and after the conference about 250 papers were submitted for publication in the conference proceedings leaving us little time for a post conference depression Despite the large number of papers the editors have attempted to review and edit the papers as care fully as possible Occasionally however correspondence exceeded reasonable deadlines preventing careful editing of a small number of the papers Although we felt that our editorial task was not quite finished we nevertheless decided to include these papers We thank the many authors for their enthusiastic and prompt response to occasionally tedious editorial suggestions and requests We are sure that this collective effort has resulted in a book that will make an important contribution to the field of medical education The editors want to thank Jocelyn Flippo Berger whose expertise with desk top publishing and perseverance was a great help Oxford Textbook of Medical Education Kieran Walsh, 2016 Providing a comprehensive and evidence based reference guide for those who have a strong and scholarly interest in medical education the Oxford Textbook of Medical Education contains everything the medical educator needs to know in order to deliver the knowledge skills and behaviour that doctors need The book explicitly states what constitutes best practice and gives an account of the evidence base that corroborates this Describing the theoretical educational principles that lay the foundations of best practice in medical education the book gives readers a through grounding in all aspects of this discipline Contributors to this book come from a variety of different backgrounds disciplines and continents producing a book that is truly original and international
