China-Swiss Relations during the Cold War, 1949-1989 Cyril

Cordoba, 2022-07-01 During the Cold War Switzerland functioned as a hub for Chinese propaganda networks Despite its fierce anti communism the Swiss Confederation was one of the first capitalist countries to recognise the People s Republic of China PRC As a neutral country and as the home base for many international organisations Switzerland represented a strategic centre for the spread of Maoism throughout the world Focusing on cultural diplomacy and questioning the notion of soft power this book explores how the PRC developed its influence and its prestige abroad through its Embassy in Bern the most important in Western Europe The book also discusses how China s approach in Switzerland bypassing traditional diplomatic structures and relying on contacts with individual people foreign friends was then used and continues to be used in many other countries including the United States France and Japan

Memory and the Language of Contention

, 2025-03-10 How does language shape the memory of activism And how do memories of hope or of repression inflect the language used by social movements in the present day This edited volume featuring international scholars across literary and cultural studies anthropology legal studies and linguistics shows how memories of activism live in the medium of language It contends that working with and working on the historical resonance of words and linguistic commonplaces is a central feature of political contention

Singular Pasts Enzo Traverso, 2022-11-01

Today history is increasingly written in the first person A growing number of historical works include an autobiographical dimension as if writing about the past required exploring the inner life of the author Neither traditional history nor autobiography this hybrid genre calls the norms of the historical profession into question In search of new and creative paths it transgresses a cardinal rule of the discipline third person narration long considered necessary to the objective analysis of the past Singular Pasts offers a critical account of the emergence of authorial subjectivity in historical writing scrutinizing

both its achievements and its shortcomings Enzo Traverso considers a group of contemporary historians including Ivan Jablonka Sergio Luzzatto and Mark Mazower who reveal their emotional ties to their subjects and give their writing a literary flavor He identifies a parallel trend in literature in which authors such as W G Sebald Patrick Modiano Javier Cercas and Daniel Mendelsohn write their works as investigations based on archival sources Traverso argues that first person history mirrors contemporary ways of thinking such writing is presentist and apolitical perceiving and representing the past through an individual lens Probing the limits of subjective historiography he emphasizes that it is collective action that produces social change we instead of I In an epilogue Traverso considers the first person writing of Saidiya Hartman as a counterexample A wide ranging and illuminating critique of a key trend in humanistic inquiry Singular Past reconsiders the notion of historical truth in a neoliberal age

Syria, Revolt and War in the Digital Age Cécile Boëx, Agnès Devictor, 2025-08-26 An intimate portrayal of protest through images during the Syrian war Never before in history has a conflict been so extensively filmed by its own warring parties generating a wealth of sound and image Since the start of the Syrian revolt in 2011 several million videos have been posted online by demonstrators activists and militant fighters Their prime objective has been to work around the media blackout imposed by the regime of Bashar al Assad as well as its calling into question the size and scope of activism and repression on the ground by filming the demonstrations the repression and the funerals Use of video quickly diversified to include protest action testimonies military defections combat training tributes to martyrs and live combat Syria Revolt and War in the Digital Age explores this vast territory of images and sounds offering a new approach to understanding the conflict in Syria and more broadly it analyzes the new use of images in contemporary conflicts Based on both digital ethnography and interviews with video takers on the ground the contributors identify gestures grammars and textures specific to this audiovisual footage that has emerged from different spaces of the conflict rarely studied as a continuum The contributors to this volume look at images from opposing camps from inside Syria and in the diaspora in order to delve into the specificities of each side s audiovisual practices and cultures the way these images relate to one another and how they might render the Syrian revolt and conflict more intelligible With the world awash in images from conflict zones this book opens readers eyes to understanding heretofore neglected aspects of revolt and conflict and proposes new ways of thinking about them Contributors Hatem A Independent worker Malmo Emma Aubin Boltanski National Center for Scientific Research CNRS Paris F B Independent worker Strasbourg Erminia Chiara Calabrese French Institute in the Near East Ifpo Beirut Giulia Galluccio National Center for Scientific Research CNRS Paris Lucile Irigoyen Independent worker and filmmaker Mauleon Shahriar Khonsari Independent photographer Teheran C dric Labrousse The School of Advanced Studies in the Social Sciences EHESS Paris Anna Poujeau National Center for Scientific Research CNRS Paris Chamsy Sarkis Independent worker Paris
