

LA FRANCE EN MIETTES

Régionalismes, l'autre séparatisme

Montées des particularismes régionaux et des revendications indépendantistes, émeutes devant les préfetures, menaces envers les fonctionnaires, agressions contre les élus, diffusions de pamphlets sécessionnistes, de propos ethnocistes, de thèses complotistes : les atteintes aux représentations de l'unité nationale, de la puissance étatique et de l'autorité républicaine ne cessent de se multiplier sous nos yeux. Pourtant, de l'Élysée à la Place Beauvau, des enceintes parlementaires aux cabinets ministériels, des bureaux de presse aux studios de radio ou de télévision, règne sur ces faits un étrange et inquiétant silence.

Cet autre séparatisme œuvre ainsi à déstructurer et déstabiliser la France au risque de précipiter, demain, son éclatement et le chaos comme dans certains États européens. Loïn d'être une chance pour la diversité, il réussit à la fois à tuer les petites patries et à déconstruire la nation. Pour ce faire, il profite des subventions publiques, d'une intense promotion médiatique, le tout sur fond de clientélisme politique.

Il est temps, nous dit Benjamin Morel, de dénoncer la fausse tolérance et le véritable aveuglement dont bénéficie cette idéologie dangereuse et délétère. Dressant un panorama inégalé d'une France vendue à la découpe, il appelle ici les Françaises et les Français à faire le pari de la raison. Il est de leur responsabilité historique de résister aux chantages qui, sous couvert d'émancipation, entendent réduire le peuple français en tribus.

Un document complet et un essai fulgurant, animé par une intelligence lucide et informée. Une alerte salutaire avant qu'il ne soit trop tard.

Maître de conférences en droit public à l'Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas, auteur d'une thèse remarquée sur le Sénat ainsi que d'articles savants sur les institutions parlementaires, les mouvements régionalistes et les collectivités territoriales, Benjamin Morel compte parmi les jeunes constitutionnalistes et politistes majeurs d'aujourd'hui.
