made in politics and have a direct effect on society in general and on women and gender relations in particular. The various forms taken by fundamentalisms in some African countries and the contexts under which they have emerged, the ways in which they re-shape identities and relationships between men and women are also analysed in this book. These fundamentalisms are frequently sources of concern in social debates in feminist and feminine organizations as well as in academia and politics. The manipulation of cultures and religions are becoming progressively political and consequently can cause social discrimination or even physical, moral and symbolic violence.
