NOTES SUR LA VIE FAMILIALE ET JURIDIQUE DE ARMAND HUTEREAU, 1909 Sewing, Fighting and Writing Maria

Tamboukou, 2015-11-09 Paris along with New York was one of the main centres of the fashion industry in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries But although New York based garment workers were mobilized early in the twentieth century Paris was the stage of vibrant revolutions and uprisings throughout the nineteenth century As a consequence French women workers were radicalized much earlier creating a unique and unprecedented moment in both labour and feminist history Seamstresses were central figures in the socio political and cultural events of nineteenth and early twentieth century France but their stories and political writings have remained marginalized and obscured Drawing on a wide range of published and unpublished documents from the industrial revolution Sewing Fighting and Writing is a Foucauldian genealogy of the Parisian seamstress Looking at the assemblage of radical practices in work politics and culture it explores the constitution of the self of the seamstress in the era of early industrialization and revolutionary events and considers her contribution to the socio political and cultural formations in modernity

Jus Suffragii, 1915

The Virtuous Marketplace Victoria Elizabeth Thompson, 2000 In The Virtuous Marketplace Victoria Thompson explores how this process developed paying special attention to the changing roles of women in the markets of mid nineteenth century Paris She shows how French women whose dual economic role as producers and consumers had previously been taken as a matter of course became the object of a growing fear of the market as a source of social unrest At the same time the image of the economically dependent woman became useful to those who demanded higher pay for male breadwinners Ultimately the figure of the prostitute was used to characterize the dangers of the public market providing the basis for its regulation and for the exclusion of women from it
