The Migrant Text Subha Xavier, 2016-06-01 A wide ranging analysis of French literature and immigration inventing a new category for migrant texts

Writerly Identities in Beur Fiction and Beyond Laura Reeck, 2011-02-11 Writerly Identities in Beur Fiction and Beyond explores the Beur banlieue literary and cultural field from its beginnings in the 1980s to the present. It examines a set of postcolonial Bildungsroman novels by Azouz Begag, Farida Belghoul, Leila Sebbar, Saïd Mohamed Rachid, Djani and Mohamed Razane. In these novels the central characters are authors who struggle to find self identity and a place in the world through writing and authorship. The book thus explores the different ways all these novels relate the process of becoming to the process of writing. Neither is straightforward as the author characters struggle to put their lives into words, settle upon a genre of writing and adopt an authorial persona. Each chapter of Writerly Identities in Beur Fiction and Beyond focuses on a given author's own relationship to writing before assessing his or her use of the author character as a proxy. In so doing the study as a whole explores a set of literary questions: genre, textual authority, reception and engages them against the backdrop of socio cultural challenges facing contemporary French society. These include debates on education, cultural literacy, diversity and equal opportunity and the banlieue environment. Finally it argues in relation to the authors and novels in question for the particular relevance of rooted and vernacular cosmopolitanism which suggests both that exploration of the world must begin at home and that stories are crucial for such explorations.
