The Reception of Oscar Wilde in Europe Stefano Evangelista, 2010-05-06 Oscar Wilde 1854-1900 is now widely recognised not only as one of the most representative figures of the British fin de siècle but as one of the most influential Anglophone authors of the nineteenth century In Britain Wilde suffered a long period of comparative neglect following the scandal of his conviction for gross indecency in 1895 and it is only recently that his works have been reassessed But while Wilde was subjected to silence in Britain he became a European phenomenon His famous dandyism his witticisms paradoxes and provocations became the object of imitation and parody his controversial aesthetic doctrines were a strong influence not only on decadent writers but also on the development of symbolist and modernist cultures This collection of essays by leading international scholars and translators traces the cultural impact of Oscar Wilde's work across Europe from the earliest translations and performances of his works in the 1890s to the present day

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard
