of painting and about the new colours that became available at this period and about their visits to exhibitions both in Paris and London They all contributed to the Royal Academy and other exhibitions In addition there is the extraordinary story of Joanna s and Henry s courtship and marriage at first encouraged and then viciously opposed by Joanna s recently widowed mother The correspondence survives only in an unpublished transcript made in the 1940s as the originals were all destroyed in a bombing raid on Bath during the second world war Excerpts from George P Boyce s diaries were published in the 1930s but the present edition contains a considerable amount of new material     House documents ,1886     Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ,1883
