The Masque of the Red Death Edgar Allan Poe,2020-10-06 The Masque of the Red Death by Edgar Allan Poe A disease known as the Red Death strikes the fictional country where this story takes place and causes its victims to die quickly and horribly Despite the fact that this disease is rampant the prince Prospero is feeling happy and hopeful He decides to lock the doors of his palace to defend himself from the plague ignoring the disease that ravages the land After several months he throws an elegant masked ball For this celebration decorate the rooms of your house in unique colors The easternmost room is decorated in blue with blue stained glass The next room is purple with the same stained glass pattern The rooms continue to the west in accordance with this layout in the following color arrangement green orange white and purple The seventh room is black with red windows Also in this room is an ebony clock When the clock strikes every hour its sound is so loud and annoying that everyone stops talking and the orchestra stops playing However when the clock does not strike the rooms are so beautiful and strange that they seem to be filled with dreams swirling among the revelers Most guests however avoid the final room black and red because it contains both the clock and a sinister atmosphere At midnight a new guest appears dressed more macabre than his counterparts His mask resembles the face of a corpse his clothing resembles a funerary shroud and his face reveals bloodstains suggesting that he is a victim of the Red Death Prospero is angry that someone with such little humor and lightness joined his group The other guests however are so afraid of this masked man that they cannot prevent him from passing through every room Prospero finally catches up with the new guest in the black and red room As soon as he confronts the figure Prospero dies When other partygoers enter the room to attack the man in the cape they discover that no one is under the costume Then they all die because the Red Death has infiltrated the castle Darkness and decay and the red death have finally triumphed

Time, Narrative & the Fixed Image / Temps, narration & image fixe, 2021-10-18 This volume focuses on the relationship between time narrative and the fixed image As such it highlights renewed interest in the temporality of the fixed image probably one of the most important trends in the formal and semiotic analysis of visual media in the past decade The various essays discuss paintings the illustrated covers of books comics or graphic novels photo stories postcards television and video art as well as aesthetic practices that defy categorization such as Chris Marker's masterpiece La Jetée The range of works and practices examined is reflected in the different theoretical approaches and methods used with an emphasis on semiology and narratology and to a lesser extent aesthetics and psychoanalysis The interest of this book however does not stem exclusively from the range and scope of the artefacts examined or the methodological issues that are addressed its fundamental importance rests in the contributors' readiness to question the differentiation between fixed and moving images which all too often provides a convenient if not altogether convincing starting point for image analysis The originality and value of the contribution that Time Narrative and the Fixed Image Temps Narration et image fixe makes to the body of theoretical writing on visual media lies in this challenging and comprehensive approach
